

Nathan Besio, a person with a disability who uses a wheelchair, has been a Vermont Human Rights Commissioner since 2007 and just finished up his second term. He works as a Peer Advocate Counselor Coordinator for the Vermont Center for Independent Living where he has been employed since November 2013. Prior to that he has over ten years of business and accounting experience, primarily in the non-profit industry working for the State of Vermont and UVM. He is a committed community leader who serves on many boards and committees in addition to the HRC. Mr. Besio received a B.A. in Psychology from St. Michael's College in 2000 and an M.B.A. from State University of New York at Albany in 2002. He loves playing adaptive sports such as power soccer and sailing. Nathan currently resides in Colchester, VT with his wife Gretchen and dog Luna.