May receive cases referred by:

- (A) local or state law enforcement prior to filing a charge;
- (B) the State's Attorney prior to filing a charge;
- (C) the court at any time during adjudication, or as part of the sentence or terms of suspension;
- (D) at any point in the process of prosecution where an alternative path from the current system of retributive justice to a community restorative justice model is preferable;
- (E) may be requested by victims of crime.
