Act No. 119 (H.958). Municipal government; communications union districts; broadband

An act relating to communications union districts

This act allows the legislative body of a municipality to vote to enter into a communications union district (CUD) during a declared state of emergency due to the COVID-19 public health emergency. In addition, it requires that initial appointments to the governing board of a CUD occur within 60 days of district formation and that the initial organizational meeting be held within 90 days of district formation.
