Act No. 130 (H.750). National Guard provost marshal

An act relating to creating a National Guard provost marshal

This act gives the Adjutant and Inspector General of the Vermont National Guard the authority to appoint a provost marshal and assistant provost marshal. It also establishes the duties of the provost marshal and assistant provost marshal and grants them the same powers and immunities with respect to criminal activity in the National Guard as are provided to other Vermont law enforcement officers. Finally, the act requires that the provost marshal and assistant provost marshal be certified as Level III law enforcement officers by the Vermont Criminal Justice Training Council.

Effective Date: July 1, 2020
