

No. R-349. House concurrent resolution designating Thursday, March 19, 2020 as Social Work Advocacy Day at the State House.

(H.C.R.287)

Offered by: Representatives Cina of Burlington, Pugh of South Burlington, and Ancel of Calais

Whereas, social workers are focused on assisting persons living in poverty, the oppressed, and the vulnerable, and they work to empower persons to achieve their full potential, and

Whereas, there are social workers in a variety of settings, such as corporations, the federal government, hospitals, local and state governments, mental health centers, schools, and veterans' centers, and

Whereas, members of civil rights, cultural, ethnic, and religious groups, as well as lawmakers, work closely with social workers, and

Whereas, social workers are in the forefront of efforts to make our State and nation a better place to live, and

Whereas, today, March 19, 2020, social workers are visiting the State House to discuss the importance of their profession, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly designates Thursday, March 19, 2020 as Social Work Advocacy Day at the State House, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the Vermont Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers.