§ 1468. WHEN RELATED PROPERTY PRESUMED ABANDONED

At and after the time property is presumed abandoned under this chapter, any other property right or interest accrued or accruing from the property and not previously presumed abandoned is also presumed abandoned.

§ 1469. INDICATION OF APPARENT OWNER INTEREST IN PROPERTY

(a) The period after which property is presumed abandoned is measured from the later of:

(1) the date the property is presumed abandoned under this subchapter; or

(2) the latest indication of interest by the apparent owner in the property.

(b) Under this chapter, an indication of an apparent owner’s interest in property includes:

(6) subject to subsection (e) of this section, payment of a premium on an insurance policy;
(7) in the case of any demand, savings, or matured time deposits with a banking or financial organization, including deposits that are automatically renewable, the holder has sent the owner by first-class U.S. mail a statement of account or other associated mailing from the bank or financial institution, which has not been returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable. In the event the mailing was returned as undeliverable, the property shall be considered abandoned three years after the return, unless the owner during that three years takes any action described in subsection (b) of this section; and

(8) any other action by the apparent owner that reasonably demonstrates to the holder that the apparent owner knows that the property exists.

(c) An action by an agent or other representative of an apparent owner, other than the holder acting as the apparent owner’s agent, is presumed to be an action on behalf of the apparent owner.

(d) A communication with an apparent owner by a person other than the holder or the holder’s representative is not an indication of interest in the property by the apparent owner unless a record of the communication evidences the apparent owner’s knowledge of a right to the property.

(e) If the insured dies or the insured or beneficiary of an insurance policy otherwise becomes entitled to the proceeds before depletion of the cash surrender value of the policy by operation of an automatic-premium-loan provision or other nonforfeiture provision contained in the policy, the operation does not prevent the policy from maturing or terminating.

§ 1470. KNOWLEDGE OF DEATH OF INSURED OR ANNUITANT

(a) In this section, “Death Master File” means the U.S. Social Security Administration Death Master File or other database or service that is at least as comprehensive as the U.S. Social Security Administration Death Master File for determining that an individual reportedly has died.

(b) With respect to a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract for which an amount is owed on proof of death, but which has not matured by proof of death of the insured or annuitant, the company has knowledge of the death of an insured or annuitant when:

(1) the company receives a death certificate or court order determining that the insured or annuitant has died;

(2) due diligence, performed as required pursuant to 8 V.S.A. part 3, to maintain contact with the insured or annuitant or determine whether the insured or annuitant has died, validates the death of the insured or annuitant;

(3) the company conducts a comparison for any purpose between a Death Master File and the names of some or all of the company’s insureds or annuitants, finds a match that provides notice that the insured or annuitant has died, and validates the death:
(4) the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent conducts a comparison for the purpose of finding matches during an examination conducted under subchapter 10 of this chapter between a Death Master File and the names of some or all of the company’s insureds or annuitants, finds a match that provides notice that the insured or annuitant has died, and the company validates the death; or

(5) the company:

(A) receives notice of the death of the insured or annuitant from an administrator, beneficiary, policy owner, relative of the insured, or trustee or from a personal representative, guardian, executor, or other legal representative of the insured’s or annuitant’s estate; and

(B) validates the death of the insured or annuitant.

(c) The following rules apply under this section:

(1) A Death Master File match under subdivision (b)(3) or (4) of this section occurs if the criteria for an exact or partial match are satisfied as provided by:

(A) law of this State other than this chapter;

(B) a rule or policy adopted by the Commissioner of the Vermont Department of Financial Regulation pursuant to 3 V.S.A. chapter 25; or

(C) section 1472 of this title.
(2) The Death Master File match does not constitute proof of death for the purpose of submission to an insurance company of a claim by a beneficiary, annuitant, or owner of the policy or contract for an amount due under an insurance policy or annuity contract.

(3) The Death Master File match or validation of the insured’s or annuitant’s death does not alter the requirements for a beneficiary, annuitant, or owner of the policy or contract to make a claim to receive proceeds under the terms of the policy or contract.

(4) If no provision in 8 V.S.A. part 3 establishes a time for validation of a death of an insured or annuitant, the insurance company shall make a good faith effort using other available records and information to validate the death and document the effort taken not later than 90 days after the insurance company has notice of the death.

(d) This chapter does not affect the determination of the extent to which an insurance company before the effective date of this chapter had knowledge of the death of an insured or annuitant or was required to conduct a Death Master File comparison to determine whether amounts owed by the company on a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract were presumed abandoned or unclaimed.
§ 1471. DEPOSIT ACCOUNT FOR PROCEEDS OF INSURANCE POLICY OR ANNUITY CONTRACT

If proceeds payable under a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract are deposited into an account with check or draft-writing privileges for the beneficiary of the policy or contract and, under a supplementary contract not involving annuity benefits other than death benefits, the proceeds are retained by the insurance company or the financial organization where the account is held, the policy or contract includes the assets in the account.

§ 1472. UNCLAIMED LIFE INSURANCE BENEFITS

(a) As used in this section:

(1) “Contract” means an annuity contract. The term “contract” shall not include an annuity used to fund an employment-based retirement plan or program where:

(A) the insurer does not perform the record-keeping services; or

(B) the insurer is not committed by terms of the annuity contract to pay death benefits to the beneficiaries of specific plan participants.

§ 1473. WHEN ABANDONMENT PERIOD IS ACCELERATED

Notwithstanding sections 1461 through 1469 of this title, and subject to section 1469 of this title:
(1) If the holder has imposed a charge against property for reason of owner inactivity or the failure of the owner to claim the property within a specified period of time, and the abandonment period for the property as specified in sections 1461 through 1469 of this chapter is greater than two years, the property shall instead be presumed abandoned two years from the date of the owner’s last indication of interest in the property.

(2) A deceased owner cannot indicate interest in his or her property. If the holder has reason to believe that the owner’s deceased, and the abandonment period for the owner’s property in sections 1461 through 1469 of this title is greater than two years, the property shall instead be presumed abandoned two years from the date of the owner’s last indication of interest in the property. If the owner’s property is subject to section 1462 or 1463 of this title, the two-year presumption of abandonment shall run from the earliest of the date of distribution or attempted distribution of the property, the date of the required distribution as stated in the plan or trust agreement governing the plan, or the date, if determinable by the holder, specified in the income tax laws of the United States by which distribution of the property must begin in order to avoid a tax penalty.

In this subchapter, the following rules apply:

(1) The last-known address of an apparent owner is any description, code, or other indication of the location of the apparent owner that identifies the state, even if the description, code, or indication of location is not sufficient to direct the delivery of first-class U.S. mail to the apparent owner.

(2) If the U.S. postal zip code associated with the apparent owner is for a post office located in this State, this State is deemed to be the state of the last-known address of the apparent owner unless other records associated with the apparent owner specifically identify the physical address of the apparent owner to be in another state.

(3) If the address under subdivision (2) of this section is in another state, the other state is deemed to be the state of the last-known address of the apparent owner.

(4) The address of the apparent owner of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract or its proceeds is presumed to be the address of the insured or annuitant if a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the amount owed under the policy or contract and the address of the other person is not known by the insurance company and cannot be determined under section 1482 of this title.

§ 1482. ADDRESS OF APPARENT OWNER IN THIS STATE

(1) the last-known address of the apparent owner in the records of the holder is in this State; or

(2) the records of the holder do not reflect the identity or last-known address of the apparent owner, but the Administrator has determined that the last-known address of the apparent owner is in this State.

§ 1483. IF RECORDS SHOW MULTIPLE ADDRESSES OF APPARENT OWNER

(a) Except as in subsection (b) of this section, if records of a holder reflect multiple addresses for an apparent owner and this State is the state of the most recently recorded address, this State may take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this State or another state.

(b) If it appears from records of the holder that the most recently recorded address of the apparent owner under subsection (a) of this section is a temporary address and this State is the state of the next most-recently recorded address that is not a temporary address, this State may take custody of the property presumed abandoned.
§ 1484. HOLDER DOMICILED IN THIS STATE

(a) Except as in subsection (b) of this section or section 1482 or 1483 of this title, the Administrator may take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this State, another state, or a foreign country, if the holder is domiciled in this State or is this State or a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this State, and

   (1) another state or foreign country is not entitled to the property because there is no last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property in the records of the holder; or

   (2) the state or foreign country of the last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property does not provide for custodial taking of the property.

(b) Property is not subject to custody of the Administrator under subsection (a) of this section if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of this State or the state or foreign country of the last-known address of the apparent owner.

(c) If a holder’s state of domicile has changed since the time property was presumed abandoned, the holder’s state of domicile in this section is deemed to be the state where the holder was domiciled at the time the property was presumed abandoned.
§ 1485. CUSTODY IF TRANSACTION TOOK PLACE IN THIS STATE

Except as in section 1482, 1483, or 1484 of this title, the Administrator may take custody of property presumed abandoned whether located in this State or another state if:

(3) the last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property is unknown or in a state that does not provide for the custodial taking of the property, except that if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of the state of the last-known address, the property is not subject to the custody of the Administrator.

RIGHT TO CUSTODY

If the Administrator asserts a right to custody of unclaimed property, the Administrator has the burden to prove:

(3) the property is subject to the custody of the Administrator.

Subchapter 4. Report by Holder

§ 1491. REPORT REQUIRED BY HOLDER

the Administrator shall report in a record to the Administrator concerning the property. The Administrator may not require a holder to file a paper report.

under subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Whether or not a holder contracts with a third party under subsection
(b) of this section, the holder is responsible:

explain why it is a non–freely transferable security; and

(b) A report under section 1491 of this title may include in the aggregate items valued under $25.00 each. If the report includes items in the aggregate valued under $25.00 each, the Administrator may not require the holder to provide the name and address of an apparent owner of an item unless the information is necessary to verify or process a claim in progress by the apparent owner.

(c) A report under section 1491 of this title may include personal information as defined in section 1611 of this title about the apparent owner or the apparent owner’s property to the extent not otherwise prohibited by federal

(c) Before the date for filing the report under section 1491 of this title, the holder of property presumed abandoned may request the Administrator to extend the time for filing. The Administrator may grant an extension. If the extension is granted, the holder may pay or make a partial payment of the amount the holder estimates ultimately will be due. The payment or partial payment terminates accrual of interest on the amount paid.

§ 1494. RETENTION OF RECORDS BY HOLDER

A holder required to file a report under section 1491 of this title shall retain records for 10 years after the later of the date the report was filed or the last date a timely report was due to be filed, unless a shorter period is provided by rule of the Administrator. The holder may satisfy the requirement to retain

(a) Electric utility cooperatives organized under or otherwise subject to 30 V.S.A. chapter 81 shall report capital credits that have been retired and declared payable by the cooperative’s board of directors, but that have not that the cooperative is obliged to pay after operating costs and expenses have been paid.

(b) The Administrator shall provide notice of unclaimed capital credit properties reported by electric utilities in accordance with the provisions of presumed abandoned shall send to the apparent owner notice by first-class U.S. mail that complies with section 1502 of this title in a format acceptable to the Administrator not more than 180 days nor less than 60 days before filing the report under section 1491 of this title if:

(1) the holder has in its records an address for the apparent owner that the holder’s records do not disclose to be invalid and is sufficient to direct the delivery of first-class U.S. mail to the apparent owner; and

(2) the value of the property is $50.00 or more.

(b) If an apparent owner has consented to receive electronic-mail delivery from the holder, the holder shall send the notice described in subsection (a) of this section both by first-class U.S. mail to the apparent owner’s last-known mailing address and by electronic mail, unless the holder believes that the apparent owner’s electronic-mail address is invalid.

§ 1502. CONTENTS OF NOTICE BY HOLDER

(a) Notice under section 1501 of this title must contain a heading that reads substantially as follows: “Notice. The State of Vermont requires us to notify notice).”.

(b) The notice under section 1501 of this title must:

(1) except as otherwise provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection, send written notice by first-class U.S. mail to each apparent owner of property valued at $50.00 or more held by the Administrator, unless the Administrator determines that a mailing by first-class U.S. mail would not be received by the apparent owner, and, in the case of a security held in an account for which the apparent owner had consented to receiving electronic mail from the holder, send notice by electronic mail if the electronic-mail address of the apparent owner is known to the Administrator instead of by first-class U.S. mail; or
(2) send the notice to the apparent owner’s electronic-mail address if the Administrator does not have a valid U.S. mail address for an apparent owner, but has an electronic-mail address that the Administrator does not know to be invalid.
(c) In addition to the notice under subsection (b) of this section, the Administrator may use any of the following to provide additional notice to the apparent owners:
(1) publication in a newspaper of general circulation:
(A) in the area of the state in which the last known address of a person to be named in the notice is located; in the state; or

(C) in the area the Administrator deems to provide the best opportunity to reach the apparent owner;
(2) individual contact by regular or electronic mail, or by telephone, if the treasurer has current contact information on file;
(3) any other manner and method that the treasurer considers effective for providing notice and publication.

Administrator shall maintain a website or database accessible by the public and electronically searchable that contains the names reported to the Administrator of all apparent owners for whom property is being held by the Administrator.
The website or database maintained under this subsection must include instructions for filing with the Administrator a claim to property and a printable claim form with instructions for its use.

(e) In addition to giving notice under subsection (b) of this section, publishing the information under subdivision (c)(1) of this section and maintaining the website or database under subdivision (d)(2) of this section, the Administrator may use other printed publication, telecommunication, the Internet, or other media to inform the public of the existence of unclaimed property held by the Administrator.

§ 1504. COOPERATION AMONG STATE OFFICERS AND AGENCIES TO LOCATE APPARENT OWNER

Unless prohibited by law of this State other than this chapter, on request of the Administrator, each officer, agency, board, commission, division, and department of this State, any body politic and corporate created by this State for a public purpose, and each political subdivision of this State shall make its books and records available to the Administrator and cooperate with the Administrator to determine the current address of an apparent owner of property held by the Administrator under this chapter.

Subchapter 6. Taking Custody of Property by Administrator

§ 1511. DEFINITION OF GOOD FAITH

In this subchapter, payment or delivery of property is made in good faith if a holder:

(1) had a reasonable basis for believing, based on the facts then known, that the property was required or permitted to be paid or delivered to the Administrator under this chapter; or

(2) made payment or delivery:

(A) in response to a demand by the Administrator or Administrator’s agent; or

(B) under a guidance or ruling issued by the Administrator that the holder reasonably believed required or permitted the property to be paid or delivered.

§ 1512. DORMANCY CHARGE

(a) A holder may deduct a dormancy charge from property required to be paid or delivered to the Administrator if:

(1) a valid contract between the holder and the apparent owner authorizes imposition of the charge for the apparent owner’s failure to claim the property within a specified time; and (2) the holder regularly imposes the charge and regularly does not reverse or otherwise cancel the charge.

(b) The amount of the deduction under subsection (a) is limited to an amount that is not unconscionable considering all relevant factors, including the marginal transactional costs incurred by the holder in maintaining the apparent owner’s property and any services received by the apparent owner.

§ 1513. PAYMENT OR DELIVERY OF PROPERTY TO ADMINISTRATOR

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, on filing a report under section 1491 of this title, the holder shall pay or deliver to the Administrator the property described in the report.

(b) If property in a report under section 1491 of this title is an automatically renewable deposit and a penalty or forfeiture in the payment of interest would result from paying the deposit to the Administrator at the time of the report, the date for payment of the property to the Administrator is extended until a penalty or forfeiture no longer would result from payment, if the holder informs the Administrator of the extended date.

(c) Tangible property in a safe-deposit box may not be delivered to the Administrator until 120 days after filing the report under section 1491 of this title.
(d) If property reported to the Administrator under section 1491 of this title is a security, the Administrator may:

(1) make an endorsement, instruction, or entitlement order on behalf of the apparent owner to invoke the duty of the issuer, its transfer agent, or the securities intermediary to transfer the security; or

(2) dispose of the security under section 1532 of this title.

(e) If the holder of property reported to the Administrator under section 1491 of this title is the issuer of a certificated security, the Administrator may obtain a replacement certificate in physical or book-entry form under 9A V.S.A. § 8-405. An indemnity bond is not required.

(f) The Administrator shall establish procedures for the registration, issuance, method of delivery, transfer, and maintenance of securities delivered to the Administrator by a holder.

(g) An issuer, holder, and transfer agent or other person acting under this section under instructions of and on behalf of the issuer or holder is not liable to the apparent owner for, and must be indemnified by the State against, a claim arising with respect to property after the property has been delivered to the Administrator.

(h) A holder is not required to deliver to the Administrator a security identified by the holder as a non-freely transferable security. If the Administrator or holder determines that a security is no longer a non-freely transferable security, the holder shall deliver the security on the next regular date prescribed for delivery of securities under this chapter. The holder shall make a determination annually whether a security identified in a report filed under section 1491 of this title as a non-freely transferable security is no longer a non-freely transferable security.
§ 1514. EFFECT OF PAYMENT OR DELIVERY OF PROPERTY TO ADMINISTRATOR
On payment or delivery of property to the Administrator under this chapter, the Administrator as agent for the State assumes custody and responsibility for safekeeping the property. A holder that pays or delivers property to the Administrator in good faith and substantially complies with sections 1501 and 1502 of this title is relieved of liability arising thereafter with respect to payment or delivery of the property to the Administrator.
§ 1515. RECOVERY OF PROPERTY BY HOLDER FROM ADMINISTRATOR
(a) A holder that under this chapter pays money to the Administrator may file a claim for reimbursement from the Administrator of the amount paid if the holder:
(1) paid the money in error; or
(2) after paying the money to the Administrator, paid money to a person the holder reasonably believed entitled to the money.
(b) If a claim for reimbursement under subsection (a) of this section is made for a payment made on a negotiable instrument, including a traveler’s check, money order, or similar instrument, the holder must submit proof that the instrument was presented and payment was made to a person the holder reasonably believed entitled to payment. The holder may claim reimbursement even if the payment was made to a person whose claim was made after expiration of a period of limitation on the owner’s right to receive or recover property, whether specified by contract, statute, or court order.

(c) If a holder is reimbursed by the Administrator under subdivision (a)(2) of this section, the holder may also recover from the Administrator income or gain under section 607 that would have been paid to the owner if the money had been claimed from the Administrator by the owner to the extent the income or gain was paid by the holder to the owner.

(d) A holder that under this chapter delivers property other than money to the Administrator may file a claim for return of the property from the Administrator if:

(1) the holder delivered the property in error; or

(2) the apparent owner has claimed the property from the holder.

(e) If a claim for return of property under subsection (d) of this section is made, the holder shall include with the claim evidence sufficient to establish that the apparent owner has claimed the property from the holder or that the property was delivered by the holder to the Administrator in error.

(f) The Administrator may determine that an affidavit submitted by a holder is evidence sufficient to establish that the holder is entitled to reimbursement or to recover property under this section.

(g) A holder is not required to pay a fee or other charge for reimbursement or return of property under this section.

(h) Not later than 90 days after a claim is filed under subsection (a) or (d) of this section, the Administrator shall allow or deny the claim and give the claimant notice of the decision in a record. If the Administrator does not take action on a claim during the 90-day period, the claim is deemed denied.

(i) The claimant may initiate a proceeding under 3 V.S.A. chapter 25 for review of the Administrator’s decision or the deemed denial under subsection (h) of this section not later than:

(1) 30 days following receipt of the notice of the Administrator’s decision; or

(2) 120 days following the filing of a claim under subsection (a) or (d) of this section in the case of a deemed denial under subsection (h) of this section.
(j) A final decision in an administrative proceeding initiated under subsection (i) of this section may be appealed to the Civil Division of the Washington County Superior Court, which shall hear the appeal de novo.

§ 1516. PROPERTY REMOVED FROM SAFE-DEPOSIT BOX

Property removed from a safe-deposit box and delivered under this chapter to the Administrator under this chapter is subject to the holder’s right to reimbursement for the cost of opening the box and a lien or contract providing reimbursement to the holder for unpaid rent charges for the box. The Administrator shall reimburse the holder from the proceeds remaining after deducting the expense incurred by the Administrator in selling the property.

§ 1517. CREDITING INCOME OR GAIN TO Owner’S ACCOUNT

If property other than money is delivered to the Administrator, the owner is entitled to receive from the Administrator income or gain realized or accrued on the property before the property is sold.

§ 1518. ADMINISTRATOR’S OPTIONS AS TO CUSTODY

(a) The Administrator may decline to take custody of property reported under section 1491 of this title if the Administrator determines that:

(1) the property has a value less than the estimated expenses of notice and sale of the property; or

(2) taking custody of the property would be unlawful.
(b) A holder may pay or deliver property to the Administrator before the property is presumed abandoned under this chapter if the holder:

1. sends the apparent owner of the property notice required by section 1501 of this title and provides the Administrator evidence that the holder sent such notice;
2. includes with the payment or delivery a report regarding the property conforming to section 1492 of this title; and
3. first obtains the Administrator’s consent in a record to accept payment or delivery.

(c) A holder’s request for the Administrator’s consent under subdivision (b)(3) of this section must be in a record. § 1583. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

(a) Not later than 90 days after receiving notice of the Administrator’s determination under section 1572 of this title, a putative holder may initiate a proceeding under 3 V.S.A. chapter 25, subchapter 2 for review of the Administrator’s determination.

(b) A final decision in an administrative proceeding initiated under subsection (a) of this section may be appealed to the Civil Division of the Washington County Superior Court, which shall hear the appeal de novo.

§ 1584. JUDICIAL REMEDY

(a) Not later than 90 days after receiving notice of the Administrator’s determination under section 1572 of this title, the putative holder may:

(1) file an action against the Administrator in the Civil Division of the Washington County Superior Court challenging the Administrator’s determination of liability and seeking a declaration that the determination is unenforceable, in whole or in part; or

(2) pay the amount or deliver the property determined by the Administrator to be paid or delivered to the Administrator and, not later than six months after payment or delivery, file an action against the Administrator in the Civil Division of the Washington County Superior Court for a refund of all or part of the amount paid or return of all or part of the property delivered.
(b) If a putative holder pays or delivers property the Administrator determined must be paid or delivered to the Administrator at any time after the putative holder files an action under subdivision (a)(1) of this section, the court shall continue the action as if it had been filed originally as an action for a refund or return of property under subdivision (a)(2) of this section.

(c) On the final determination of an action filed under subsection (a) of this section, the court may, on application, award to the prevailing party its reasonable attorney’s fees, costs, and expenses, of litigation.

(d) A putative holder that is the prevailing party in an action under subdivision (a)(2) of this section for refund of money paid to the Administrator is entitled to interest on the amount refunded, at the same rate a holder is required to pay to the Administrator under subsection 1594(a) of this title, from the date paid to the Administrator until the date of the refund.

Subchapter 12. Enforcement by Administrator

§ 1591. JUDICIAL ACTION TO ENFORCE LIABILITY

(a) If a determination under section 1572 of this title becomes final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review, the Administrator may bring an action in the Civil Division of the Washington County Superior Court or in an appropriate court of another state to enforce the determination and secure payment or delivery of past due, unpaid, or undelivered property.
(b) In an action under subsection (a) of this section, if no court in this State has jurisdiction over the defendant, the Administrator may commence an action in any court having jurisdiction over the defendant.

§ 1592. INTERSTATE AND INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT; COOPERATION

  (a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, the Administrator may:

  (1) exchange information with another state or foreign country relating to property presumed abandoned or relating to the possible existence of property presumed abandoned; and

  (2) authorize in a record another state or foreign country or a person acting on behalf of the other state or country to examine its records of a putative holder as provided in subchapter 10 of this chapter.

  (b) An exchange or examination under subsection (a) of this section may be done only if the state or foreign country has confidentiality and security requirements substantially equivalent to those in subchapter 14 of this chapter, or agrees in a record to be bound by this State’s confidentiality and security requirements.

§ 1593. ACTION INVOLVING ANOTHER STATE OR FOREIGN COUNTRY

  (a) The Administrator may join another state or foreign country to examine and seek enforcement of this chapter against a putative holder.
(b) On request of another state or foreign country, the Vermont Attorney General may commence an action on behalf of the other state or country to enforce, in this State, the law of the other state or country against a putative holder subject to a claim by the other state or country, if the other state or country agrees to pay costs incurred by the Attorney General in the action.

(c) The Administrator may request the official authorized to enforce the unclaimed property law of another state or foreign country to commence an action to recover property in the other state or country on behalf of the Administrator. This State shall pay the costs, including reasonable attorney’s fees and expenses, incurred by the other state or foreign country in an action under this subsection.

(d) The Administrator may pursue an action on behalf of this State to recover property subject to this chapter but delivered to the custody of another state if the Administrator believes the property is subject to the custody of the Administrator.

(e) The Administrator may retain an attorney in this State, another state, or a foreign country to commence an action to recover property on behalf of the Administrator and may agree to pay attorney’s fees based in whole or in part on a fixed fee, hourly fee, or a percentage of the amount or value of property recovered in the action.
(f) Expenses incurred by this State in an action under this section may be paid from property received under this chapter or the net proceeds of the property. Expenses paid to recover property may not be deducted from the amount that is subject to a claim under this chapter by the owner.

§ 1594. INTEREST AND PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO ACT IN TIMELY MANNER

(a) A holder that fails to report, pay, or deliver property within the time prescribed by this chapter shall pay to the Administrator interest at the higher of the annual rate established by the Vermont Tax Department for unpaid tax liabilities pursuant to 32 V.S.A. § 3108 or the prime rate as reported in the Money Rates section of the Wall Street Journal on the day the invoice for interest is issued by the Administrator on the property or value of the property from the date the property should have been reported, paid, or delivered to the Administrator until the date reported, paid, or delivered.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in section 1595 or 1596 of this title, the Administrator may require a holder that fails to report, pay, or deliver property within the time prescribed by this chapter to pay to the Administrator, in addition to interest included under subsection (a) of this section, a civil penalty of $200.00 for each day the duty is not performed, up to a cumulative maximum amount of $5,000.00.

§ 1595. OTHER CIVIL PENALTIES
(a) If a holder enters into a contract or other arrangement for the purpose of evading an obligation under this chapter or otherwise willfully fails to perform a duty imposed on the holder under this chapter, the Administrator may require the holder to pay the Administrator, in addition to interest as provided in subsection 1594(a), a civil penalty of $1,000.00 for each day the obligation is evaded or the duty is not performed, up to a cumulative maximum amount of $25,000.00, plus 25 percent of the amount or value of property that should have been but was not reported, paid, or delivered as a result of the evasion or failure to perform.

(b) If a holder makes a fraudulent report under this chapter, the Administrator may require the holder to pay to the Administrator, in addition to interest under subsection 1594(a) of this title, a civil penalty of $1,000.00 for each day from the date the report was made until corrected, up to a cumulative maximum of $25,000.00, plus 25 percent of the amount or value of any property that should have been reported but was not included in the report or was underreported.

§ 1596. WAIVER OF INTEREST AND PENALTY

The Administrator:

(1) may waive, in whole or in part, interest under subsection 1594(a) of this title and penalties under subsection 1594(b) or section 1595 of this title; and
(2) shall waive a penalty under subsection 1594(b) of this title if the Administrator determines that the holder acted in good faith and without negligence.

Subchapter 13. Agreement to Locate Property of Apparent Owner Held by Administrator

§ 1601. WHEN AGREEMENT TO LOCATE PROPERTY ENFORCEABLE

An agreement by an apparent owner and another person, the primary purpose of which is to locate, deliver, recover, or assist in the location, delivery, or recovery of property held by the Administrator, is enforceable only if the agreement:

(1) is in a record that clearly states the nature of the property and the services to be provided;

(2) is signed by or on behalf of the apparent owner; and

(3) states the amount or value of the property reasonably expected to be recovered, computed before and after a fee or other compensation to be paid to the person has been deducted.

§ 1602. WHEN AGREEMENT TO LOCATE PROPERTY VOID

(a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, an agreement under section 1601 of this title is void if it is entered into during the period beginning on the date the property was paid or delivered by a holder to the Administrator and ending 24 months after the payment or delivery.
(b) If a provision in an agreement described in subsection (a) of this section applies to mineral proceeds for which compensation is to be paid to the other person based in whole or in part on a part of the underlying minerals or mineral proceeds not then presumed abandoned, the provision is void regardless of when the agreement was entered into.

(c) An agreement under subsection (a) of this section that provides for compensation in an amount that is unconscionable is unenforceable except by the apparent owner. An apparent owner that believes the compensation the apparent owner has agreed to pay is unconscionable or the Administrator, acting on behalf of an apparent owner, or both, may bring an action in the appropriate court to reduce the compensation to the maximum amount that is not unconscionable. On the final determination of an action filed under this subsection, the court may, on application, award the prevailing party its reasonable attorney’s fees, costs, and expenses of litigation.

(d) An apparent owner or the Administrator may assert that an agreement described in this section is void on a ground other than it provides for payment of unconscionable compensation.

(e) This section does not apply to an apparent owner’s agreement with an attorney to pursue a claim for recovery of specifically identified property held by the Administrator or to contest the Administrator’s denial of a claim for recovery of the property.
(f) An agreement between an owner and an asset locator, the primary purpose of which is to locate, deliver, recover, or assist in the recovery of property that is presumed abandoned and that provides for compensation that exceeds 10 percent of the value of the unclaimed property, shall be unenforceable.

§ 1603. RIGHT OF AGENT OF APPARENT OWNER TO RECOVER

PROPERTY HELD BY ADMINISTRATOR

(a) An apparent owner that contracts with another person to locate, deliver, recover, or assist in the location, delivery, or recovery of property of the apparent owner which is held by the Administrator may designate the person as the agent of the apparent owner. The designation must be in a record signed by the apparent owner.

(b) The Administrator shall give the agent of the apparent owner all information concerning the property that the apparent owner is entitled to receive, including information that otherwise is confidential information under section 1612 of this title.

§ 1604. ASSET LOCATORS

(a) All asset locators seeking to interact with the Administrator on behalf of apparent owners shall first register with Administrator on forms prescribed by the Administrator. Registration information shall include an asset locator’s previous business experience and whether the asset locator has a criminal record. In order to obtain and maintain registered status, all asset locators shall post a performance bond of not less than $10,000.00 to insure the Administrator against any fraudulent or mistaken claims that may arise as a result of an asset locator’s representation of an apparent owner. A copy of any agreement, or contract, between an asset locator and an apparent owner shall be filed with the Administrator, together with a signed by the apparent owner and notarized “notice to claimant” form, as prescribed by the Administrator, describing the rights of the apparent owner under this subchapter.

(b) An owner may not assign his or her rights, or property interests, under this chapter to an asset locator. No power of attorney containing provisions contrary to this section shall be enforceable.

Subchapter 14. Confidentiality and Security of Information

§ 1611. DEFINITIONS; APPLICABILITY

(a) As used in this subchapter, “personal information” means:

(1) information that identifies or reasonably can be used to identify an individual, such as first and last name in combination with the individual’s:

(G) passwords or other credentials that permit access to an online or other account;

(2) personally identifiable financial or insurance information, including nonpublic personal information defined by applicable federal law; and

(3) any combination of data that, if accessed, disclosed, modified, or destroyed without authorization of the owner of the data or if lost or misused, would require notice or reporting under 9 V.S.A. chapter 62 and federal privacy and data security law, whether or not the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent is subject to the law.

(b) A provision of this subchapter that applies to the Administrator or the Administrator’s records applies to an Administrator’s agent.

§ 1612. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the following are confidential and exempt from public inspection or disclosure:

(1) records of the Administrator and the Administrator’s agent related to the administration of this chapter;

(2) reports and records of a holder in the possession of the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent; and

(3) personal information and other information derived or otherwise obtained by or communicated to the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent from an examination under this chapter of the records of a person.

(b) A record or other information that is confidential under law of this State other than this chapter, another state, or the United States continues to be confidential when disclosed or delivered under this chapter to the Administrator or Administrator’s agent.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, or of 1 V.S.A. chapter 5, subchapter 3, the Administrator may withhold information concerning an individual, or specific abandoned property, when in the Administrator’s judgment it is necessary to ensure that abandoned property is returned to the rightful owner, or to otherwise protect the owner. In addition, the Administrator may withhold information concerning individuals and abandoned property until notice has been provided in accordance with section 1503 of this title, deny requests for lists of apparent owners in any format for 24 months after the date the property is paid or delivered to the Administrator, and withhold information concerning uncashed checks and other similar payment information prior to the property being presumed abandoned as set forth in subchapter 2 of this chapter.
§ 1613. WHEN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION MAY BE DISCLOSED

(a) When reasonably necessary to enforce or implement this chapter, the Administrator may disclose confidential information concerning property held by the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent only to:

(1) an apparent owner or the apparent owner’s personal representative, attorney, other legal representative, relative, or agent designated under section 1603 of this title to have the information;

(2) the personal representative, executor, other legal representative, relative of a deceased apparent owner, agent designated under section 1603 of this title by the deceased apparent owner, or a person entitled to inherit from the deceased apparent owner;

(3) another department or agency of this State or the United States;

(4) the person that administers the unclaimed property law of another state, if the other state accords substantially reciprocal privileges to the Administrator of this State, or if the other state is required to maintain the confidentiality and security of information obtained in a manner substantially equivalent to subchapter 14 of this chapter;

(5) a person subject to an examination as required by subdivision 1564(6) of this title.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 1612(a) of this title, the Administrator shall include on the website or in the database required by subdivision 1503(c)(2) of this title the name of each apparent owner of property held by the Administrator. The Administrator may include in published notices, printed publications, telecommunications, the Internet, or other media and on the website or in the database additional information concerning the apparent owner’s property if the Administrator believes the information will assist in identifying and returning property to the owner and does not disclose personal information except the home or physical address of an apparent owner.

(c) The Administrator and the Administrator’s agent may not use confidential information provided to them or in their possession except as expressly authorized by this chapter or required by law other than this chapter.

§ 1614. CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

A person to be examined under section 1562 of this title may require, as a condition of disclosure of the records of the person to be examined, that each person having access to the records disclosed in the examination execute and deliver to the person to be examined a confidentiality agreement that:

(1) is in a form that is reasonably satisfactory to the Administrator; and

(2) requires the person having access to the records to comply with the provisions of this subchapter applicable to the person.
§ 1615. NO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION IN NOTICE

Except as otherwise provided in sections 1501 and 1502 of this title, a holder is not required under this chapter to include confidential information in a notice the holder is required to provide to an apparent owner under this chapter.

§ 1616. SECURITY OF INFORMATION

(a) If a holder is required to include confidential information in a report to the Administrator, the information must be provided by a secure means.

(b) If confidential information in a record is provided to and maintained by the Administrator or Administrator’s agent as required by this chapter, the Administrator or agent shall:

(1) implement administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect the security, confidentiality, and integrity of the information required by 9 V.S.A. chapter 62 and federal privacy and data security law whether or not the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent is subject to the law;

(2) protect against reasonably anticipated threats or hazards to the security, confidentiality, or integrity of the information; and

(3) protect against unauthorized access to or use of the information that could result in substantial harm or inconvenience to a holder or the holder’s customers, including insureds, annuitants, and policy or contract owners and their beneficiaries.
(c) The Administrator:

(1) after notice and comment, shall adopt and implement a security plan that identifies and assesses reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks to confidential information in the Administrator’s possession and seeks to mitigate the risks; and

(2) shall ensure that the Administrator’s agent adopts and implements a similar plan with respect to confidential information in the agent’s possession.

(d) The Administrator and the Administrator’s agent shall educate and train their employees regarding the plan adopted under subsection (c) of this section.

(e) The Administrator and the Administrator’s agent shall in a secure manner return or destroy all confidential information no longer reasonably needed under this chapter.

§ 1617. SECURITY BREACH

(a) Except to the extent prohibited by law other than this chapter, the Administrator or Administrator’s agent shall notify a holder as soon as practicable of:

(1) a suspected loss, misuse or unauthorized access, disclosure, modification, or destruction of confidential information obtained from the holder in the possession of the Administrator or the Administrator’s agent; and
(2) any interference with operations in any system hosting or housing confidential information that:

(A) compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of the information; or

(B) creates a substantial risk of identity fraud or theft.

(b) Except as necessary to inform an insurer, attorney, investigator, or others as required by law, the Administrator and the Administrator’s agent may not disclose, without the express consent in a record of the holder, an event described in subsection (a) of this section to a person whose confidential information was supplied by the holder.

(c) If an event described in subsection (a) of this section occurs, the Administrator and the Administrator’s agent shall:

(1) take action necessary for the holder to understand and minimize the effect of the event and determine its scope; and

(2) cooperate with the holder with respect to:

(A) any notification required by law concerning a data or other security breach; and

(B) a regulatory inquiry, litigation, or similar action.

§ 1618. INDEMNIFICATION FOR BREACH

(a) If a claim is made or action commenced arising out of an event described in subsection 1617(a) of this title relating to confidential information possessed by the Administrator’s agent, the Administrator’s agent shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless a holder and the holder’s affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents as to:

(1) any claim or action and

(2) a liability, obligation, loss, damage, cost, fee, penalty, fine, settlement, charge, or other expense, including reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, established by the claim or action.

(b) The Administrator shall require an Administrator’s agent that will receive confidential information required under this chapter to maintain adequate insurance for indemnification obligations of the Administrator’s agent under subsection (a) of this section. The agent required to maintain the insurance shall provide evidence of the insurance to:

(1) the Administrator not less frequently than annually; and

(2) the holder on commencement of an examination and annually thereafter until all confidential information is returned or destroyed under subsection 1406(e) of this title.

§ 1621. UNIFORMITY OF APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION

In applying and construing this uniform chapter consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.
§ 1622. RELATION TO ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES IN GLOBAL AND NATIONAL COMMERCE ACT

This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001 et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersed Section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7003(b).

§ 1623. TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

(a) An initial report filed under this chapter for property that was not required to be reported before the effective date of this chapter, but that is required to be reported under this chapter, must include all items of property that would have been presumed abandoned during the 10-year period preceding the effective date of this chapter as if this chapter had been in effect during that period.

(b) This chapter does not relieve a holder of a duty that arose before the effective date of this chapter to report, pay, or deliver property. Subject to subsections 1520(b) and (c) of this title, a holder that did not comply with the law governing unclaimed property before the effective date of this chapter is subject to applicable provisions for enforcement and penalties in effect before the effective date of this chapter.
Sec. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE

This act shall take effect on January 1, 2020.
