Concurrent Resolutions for Adoption Under Joint Rule 16

The following concurrent resolutions will be adopted automatically unless a Representative or Senator requests floor consideration before the end of Friday's legislative session. Requests for floor consideration must be communicated to the House Clerk's office or the Senate Secretary's office.

Resolutions

H.C.R. 200.

House concurrent resolution congratulating the Hazelett Corporation in Colchester on its centennial

Offered by: Representatives Austin of Colchester, Brennan of Colchester, Chase of Colchester, and Taylor of Colchester

Offered by: Senator Mazza

Whereas, in 1919, Clarence Hazelett began developing continuous casting machines in Connecticut, and in 1924, he formalized his operations, establishing the Hazelett Storage Battery Company, and

Whereas, in 1956, his sons, William and Richard, relocated to Colchester and incorporated the company as the Hazelett Strip-Casting Corporation, and

Whereas, today, David Hazelett leads the company, known as the Hazelett Corporation, a "world leader in designing and manufacturing advanced twin-belt strip casters," and

Whereas, in 2019, the Lake Champlain Regional Chamber of Commerce honored the Hazelett Corporation with its Business of the Year Award, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly congratulates the Hazelett Corporation on its centennial, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the Hazelett Corporation in Colchester.

H.C.R. 202.

House concurrent resolution in memory of Lindy S. Lynch

Offered by: Representatives Morrissey of Bennington, Bates of Bennington, Carroll of Bennington, and Corcoran of Bennington

Offered by: Senators Campion and Sears

Whereas, as the first person to log 1,000 candy striper hours at her local hospital, Lindy Lynch demonstrated a youthful enthusiasm for community service that endured a lifetime, and

Whereas, a nursing graduate of Western Connecticut University, Lindy Lynch's service as a U.S. Army nurse earned her Soldier of the Year recognition, and

Whereas, Lindy Lynch's civilian life in Bennington included many praiseworthy endeavors, and

Whereas, local and statewide child care services benefited from her entrepreneurial and advocacy roles, for which the State of Vermont honored her, and

Whereas, in the public sector, Lindy Lynch served on the North Bennington School Board, and

Whereas, she lent her leadership ingenuity to the local Rotary and Chamber of Commerce, serving as president of both organizations as well as on the board of the Vermont Chamber of Commerce, and

Whereas, Lindy Lynch was a founding board member of radio station WBTV, served on the NorShaft Lions Park renovation committee and the Bennington Economic Development Task Force, was an organizer of the Bennington Car Show and a founder of the Bennington Garlic Festival and, not surprisingly, given her nursing background, an active Southwestern Vermont Medical Center volunteer, and

Whereas, this consummate and greatly admired civic leader, known as "Bennington's Number 1 Fan," died on August 3, 2019 at 63 years of age, and her survivors include her husband, Kevin, with whom she had co-operated Kevin's Restaurant in North Bennington, her mother, children, and grandchildren, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly extends its sincere condolences to the family of Lindy S. Lynch, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the members of the family of Lindy Lynch.

H.C.R. 203.

House concurrent resolution designating January 22, 2020 as Mentoring Day at the State House

Offered by: Representative Webb of Shelburne

Whereas, mentoring relationships, focused on the volunteer involvement of caring adult mentors, offer youths valuable support services, and

Whereas, mentored youths exhibit improved resiliency and better relationships with peers, family, schools, and community, and

Whereas, partnerships between businesses, schools, and youth service organizations are an essential mentoring component, and

Whereas, since 2002, January has been designated as National Mentoring Month, and since 2013, MENTOR Vermont has facilitated the development of mentoring programs throughout the State, and

Whereas, today, January 22, 2020, representatives of the mentoring community are visiting the State House, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly recognizes the important work of MENTOR Vermont and designates January 22, 2020 as Mentoring Day at the State House, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to MENTOR Vermont.
