

Statement:

The Vermont State Colleges System maintains a centralized system of student records and transcripts. In the event there is a closure or change in instruction at any Vermont State Colleges System institution, the System would continue to manage records for any student or alumnus of that institution.

Thank you.

Patricia M. Coates