

2019 LEGISLATION GIVES MISSISSIPPI COMPETITIVE EDGE

FOR MORE DETAILS > MISSISSIPPI.ORG/EDGE

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT INCENTIVES

MORE THAN
$80 MILLION
AVAILABLE FOR PUBLIC INFRASTRUCTURE
AND OTHER PROJECT NEEDS

AEROSPACE INCENTIVES

$25
MILLION
INVESTMENT

10-year property abatement
10-year exemption State income and franchise taxes

25
JOBS

Tax exemption for building materials

$60
MILLION
INVESTMENT

May qualify for fee-in-lieu of property taxes

DATA CENTER INCENTIVES

$20
MILLION
INVESTMENT

10-year property abatement
10-year exemption State income and franchise taxes

20
JOBS

Sales tax exemption on electricity, construction and equipment

$60
MILLION
INVESTMENT

May qualify for fee-in-lieu of property taxes

GULF COAST RESTORATION FUND

$600
MILLION

AVAILABLE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

*For a project that will have major economic impact in Mississippi, additional tax incentives and grant funding may be available through legislative action.

Aerospace in Mississippi

Virtually every commercial plane in the world has at least one component made in Mississippi.

- Aerojet Rocketdyne – Stennis Space Center*
- Airbus Helicopters – Columbus
- Aurora Flight Sciences – Columbus
- Boeing – Meridian
- Eaton Aerospace – Jackson
- GE Aviation – Batesville
- GE Capital Aviation Services – Greenwood
- General Atomics – Shannon
- Insitu – Starkville
- Israel Aerospace Industries – Columbus
- L-3 Vertex Aerospace – Madison
- Lockheed Martin – Meridian
- Lockheed Martin – Stennis Space Center*
- NASA – Stennis Space Center*
- Northrop Grumman – Moss Point
- Northrop Grumman – Ocean Springs
- Orbital ATK – Iuka
- PG Technologies – Ellisville
- Raytheon – Forest
- Rolls-Royce – Stennis Space Center*
- SpaceX – Stennis Space Center*
- Tyonek – Kiln
- Universal Asset Management – Tupelo
- Zodiac Aero Evacuation Systems – Liberty
- Zodiac Parachute & Protection – Columbia

*NASA's John C. Stennis Space Center is a unique federal city, home to more than 30 federal, state, academic, and private organizations and numerous technology-based companies.