

The Vermont River Conservancy (VRC) is a statewide, non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization supported by people who believe the protection of exceptional water-related lands is essential to the quality of life in Vermont

Vermont River Conservancy Bettis River Corridor and Public Access Easement Town of Hancock

<ul> <li>GMP utility line</li> <li>Old roadbed</li> <li>Easement Boundary</li> <li>River Buffer</li> </ul>	N	Reviewed and Accepted by:
Conservation Values Map (1:1,600)		Duly Authorized Agent of Vermont Riverlands	Date
0 12.5 25 50 75 100 Meters		Duly Authorized Agent of Vermont Housing Conservation Board	Date
0 155 310	620 Feet	Duly Authorized Agent of the Vermont River Conservancy IGN, and the GIS User Community	Date

Map GIS Data Provided by VCGI, VRPC, VLT Conserved Lands Atlas, NAIP, and VRC. Created October 2018