I believe a baby is a human being from the moment of conception. The only thing that should be of concern is the health of the mother. Abortion is as bad as killing a child!