Subject: Crimes; criminal threatening

Statement of purpose of bill as introduced: This bill proposes to provide an enhanced penalty for criminal threats involving the use of firearms or explosives at a school.

An act relating to criminal threatening in schools

It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont:

Sec. 1. 13 V.S.A. § 1702 is amended to read:

§ 1702. CRIMINAL THREATENING

(a) A person shall not by words or conduct knowingly:

(1) threaten another person; and

(2) as a result of the threat, place the other person in reasonable apprehension of death or serious bodily injury to the person or to the person’s family.
(b) A person who violates subsection (a) of this section shall be imprisoned not more than one year or fined not more than $1,000.00, or both.

(c)(1) A person who violates subsection (a) of this section with the intent to prevent another person from reporting to the Department for Children and Families the suspected abuse or neglect of a child shall be imprisoned not more than two years or fined not more than $1,000.00, or both.

(2) A person who violates subsection (a) of this section by threatening to use a firearm or explosive device in a school building, on school grounds, or in an institution of higher education shall be imprisoned for not more than five years or fined not more than $5,000.00 or both.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) “Serious bodily injury” shall have the same meaning as in section 1021 of this title.

(2) “Threat” and “threaten” shall not include constitutionally protected activity.

(e) Any person charged under this section who is under 18 years of age shall be adjudicated as a juvenile delinquent.

(f) It shall be an affirmative defense to a charge under this section that a mitigating factor at sentencing the person did not have the ability to carry out the threat. The burden shall be on the defendant to prove the affirmative defense by a preponderance of the evidence.
Sec. 2. EFFECTIVE DATE

This act shall take effect on passage.
