membership in a labor organization, or of professional licensure, certification,
or registration:

(2) use genetic testing results or genetic information from a person an individual or a member of a person’s the individual’s family;

(3) use the diagnosis of a genetic disease derived from a clinical interview and examination, but not derived from the results of a genetic test; or

(4) require genetic testing.

(b) As used in this section, “employment” includes an application for employment, provided that subject to the underwriting limitations of section 9334 of this title, this subsection shall not prohibit use of genetic testing results or genetic information in connection with life, disability income, or long-term care insurance provided under an employee benefit plan.
Sec. 3. 18 V.S.A. § 9334 is amended to read:

§ 9334. GENETIC TESTING AS A CONDITION OF INSURANCE

(a) No policy of insurance offered for delivery or issued in this State shall be underwritten or conditioned on the basis of:

(1) any requirement or agreement of the individual to undergo genetic testing; or

(2) genetic information of the individual that may be associated with a potential genetic condition in that individual but that has not resulted in a diagnosed condition in the individual; or

(3) the results of genetic testing of genetic information of a member of the individual’s family.

* * *

* * * Insurance * * *

Sec. 4. 8 V.S.A. § 3702 is amended to read:

§ 3702. OTHER PROHIBITED PRACTICES

A life insurance company doing business in the State or an agent thereof shall not do any of the following:

(1) issue a policy of insurance or make an agreement other than that plainly expressed in the policy issued to the insured.
(2) pay or allow, or offer to pay or allow, as an inducement to benefits to accrue thereon; or

(4) provide any valuable consideration or inducement not specified in the policy.

(5)(A) Condition insurance rates, the provision or renewal of insurance coverage or benefits, or other conditions of insurance for any individual on:

(i) any requirement or agreement of the individual to undergo genetic testing;

(ii) genetic information of the individual that may be associated with a potential genetic condition in that individual but that has not resulted in a diagnosed condition in the individual; or

(iii) genetic information of a member of the individual’s family.

(B) As used in this subdivision (5), “genetic testing” and “genetic information” have the same meaning as in 18 V.S.A. § 9331.

(C) Notwithstanding subdivisions (A) and (B) of this subdivision (5), a life insurance company or its agent may condition insurance rates, the provision or renewal of insurance coverage or benefits, or other conditions of insurance for an individual on the individual’s family medical history, including the manifestation of a disease or disorder in one or more family members of the individual, provided that there is a relationship between the individual’s family medical history and the cost of the insurance risk that the insurer would assume by insuring the individual. In demonstrating the relationship, the insurer can rely on actual or reasonably anticipated experience.

(6) Request, require, purchase, or use information obtained from an entity providing direct-to-consumer genetic testing without the informed written consent of the individual who has been tested.

Sec. 5. 8 V.S.A. § 4724 is amended to read:
