Joint Resolution Referred to Committee

J.R.H. 21

Joint resolution urging the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to approve the use of R-1234yf refrigerant for use in heavy-duty truck air conditioning systems

Offered by: Representative McCormack of Burlington

Whereas, the air conditioning refrigerant known as R-134a was an alternative to the powerful greenhouse gas- and ozone-depleting refrigerant R-12, and

Whereas, R-134a has an ozone-depleting potential of zero, but is still is a major greenhouse gas, and

Whereas, the refrigerant R-1234yf has an ozone-depleting potential of zero and a global-warming impact of close to zero, and it is a workable alternative refrigerant to R-134, and

Whereas, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has approved the use of R-1234yf for use in automobile and off-road vehicle air conditioning systems, and R-1234yf has been successfully used in automobiles since 2013, and

Whereas, changing from R-134a to R-1234yf for use in heavy-duty truck air conditioning systems would result in significant environmental benefits in the effort to reduce the impact of global warming, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly urges the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to approve the use of R-1234yf refrigerant for use in heavy-duty truck air conditioning systems and that truck manufacturers make this transition as soon as possible following federal approval, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the EPA Administrator in Washington, D.C.

Was read by title only, treated as bill, and referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, Fish, and Wildlife pursuant to House Rule 52.

H.R. 23

House resolution amending the Rules and Orders of the House of Representatives related to the prevention of sexual harassment

Offered by: Representatives Burke of Brattleboro, Bluemle of Burlington, Feltus of Lyndon, McCoy of Poultney, and Mrowicki of Putney

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

That Rule 90(c) of the Rules and Orders of the House of Representatives be amended to read:

(c) Sexual Harassment

(1) The House of Representatives is opposed to and prohibits sexual harassment without qualification. This ~~policy rule~~ covers the conduct of Representatives and persons that either the Speaker's Office or the Office of the Clerk of the House employs.

(2) This policy protects Representatives, employees, and members of the public, including lobbyists, advocates, and members of the press, from sexual harassment attributable to a Representative or an employee of these offices.

(3) The Rules Committee shall, at the beginning of the biennium, appoint a Sexual Harassment Prevention Panel composed of five members of the House who shall serve until successors are appointed.

(4) The Panel shall elect a chair, adopt procedures to conduct its business, adopt a policy against sexual harassment in compliance with 21 V.S.A. § 495h and as necessary to implement this ~~policy rule~~, and shall provide copies of ~~the policy set forth in this rule~~ and the adopted procedures and policy against sexual harassment to all members of the House and employees of the Speaker's Office and the Office of the Clerk of the House.

(5) The Panel shall receive and investigate complaints of alleged sexual harassment made against members of the House or an employee of the Speaker's Office or the Office of the Clerk of the House. The Panel may meet remotely during adjournment to consider complaints as set forth in the Panel's adopted procedures.

(6) The Panel shall advise individual members and provide training to all House members, employees, and interns on the scope of conduct constituting prohibited sexual harassment.

(7) The Panel, if it deems it necessary, may recommend to the House any disciplinary action against a member for a sexual harassment violation.

(8) These Rules prohibit retaliation against a person who complains, reports, or cooperates in an investigation of sexual harassment.

(9) Annually, on or before December 31, the Sexual Harassment Prevention Panel shall report to the House the number of complaints filed, the disposition of those complaints, and the number of member requests for advice on sexual harassment inquiries.
