

Lamoille Valley Gleaning

Serving famers and eaters in Vermont's Lamoille Valley. We engage and feed the community through gleaning and distributing surplus produce that farms cannot sell.

2020

WHAT HAVE WE ACHIEVED?

- Collected 41 types of fruits and vegetables from 20 different farms
- Distributed 147,282 servings of surplus produce to 39 community sites
- Engaged 142 individual volunteers in more than 550 hours of service

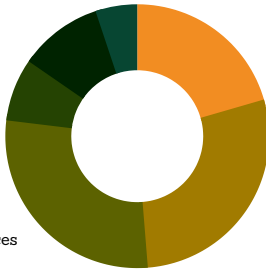

WHO WE SERVE

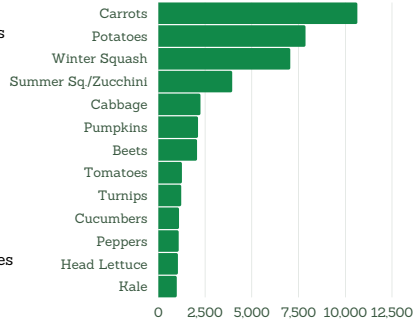

Affordable Housing
51%

Meals on Wheels
20.5%

Food Shelves
28.2%

CROP DIVERSITY

RESPONDING TO COVID-19 IN VERMONT

During 2020, Salvation Farms helped distribute 1,415 gallons of milk from the Abbey Group and 26,181 pounds of food through USDA Farmers to Families boxes to community sites served by Lamoille Valley Gleaning.

