

(7) "Simulation" means the explicit depiction of any conduct described that creates the appearance of such conduct and that exhibits the uncovered portion of the breasts, genitals, or buttocks. Simulations in this subdivision pertain to simulations of the conduct described in subdivisions (2)(A)–(F) of this section and not to a simulated child. Simulations in this subdivision do not include paintings, drawings, or nonvisual or written descriptions of sexual conduct.