

So Vermont has a controlled substance problem that is turning entire areas of the state into a toilet and the legislature's response is to decriminalize possession of controlled substances.

BRILLIANT!!!

I guess that's one way to reduce crime. Maybe we could do that with all other crimes as well. The crime rate in Vermont will plummet to zero lol!! Not really funny though.

Only in Vermont.

Jim Serrao - Shaftsbury