5 ~~forfeiture case the fact of a conviction in the Criminal Division~~ Discovery.
6 Discovery related to the criminal forfeiture proceeding is subject to the 8 (c) Burden of proof. The State bears the burden of proving by clear and 9 convincing evidence that the property is an instrument of or represents the 10 proceeds of the underlying offense.

11 (d) ~~Notice. Within 60 days from when the seizure occurs, the State shall~~ 12 ~~notify any owners, possessors, and lienholders of the property of the action, if~~ 13 ~~known or readily ascertainable. Upon motion by the State, a court may extend~~ 14 ~~the time period for sending notice for a period not to exceed 90 days for good~~
15 ~~cause shown.~~ Notice of proposed forfeiture.

17 criminal sanction as part of and following the prosecution of the crime that 18 subjects the individual with an interest in the property to forfeiture of property
19 pursuant to section 4241 of this title. Upon the State's determination that it
20 will seek forfeiture, the State shall file a Notice of Proposed Forfeiture as shall 21 be a separate document not later than 30 days prior to trial or at the Criminal

1 Division’s discretion. The Notice of Proposed Forfeiture shall include the 2 following information:

3 (A) the facts upon which the forfeiture is requested, including a

1 In addition, the State shall cause the Notice to be published in a newspaper of 2 general circulation in the State, as ordered by the Criminal Division.

3 (4) The Notice shall not be read to the jury of the underlying
4 prosecution.

5 (5) The State may amend the Notice at any time before trial of the 6 underlying prosecution.

7 (6) The Criminal Division may grant an unlimited number of 30-day
8 extensions for the filing of the Notice if, for each extension, the court
9 determines that probable cause is shown and additional time is warranted.

10 (e) Return of property. If notice is not sent in accordance with subsection 11 (d) of this section, and no time extension is granted or the extension period has 12 expired, the law enforcement agency shall return the property to the person
13 from whom the property was seized. ~~An agency's return of property due to~~ 14 ~~lack of proper notice does not restrict the agency's authority to commence a~~
15 ~~forfeiture proceeding at a later time.~~ Nothing in this subsection shall require 16 the agency to return contraband, evidence, or other property that the person
17 from whom the property was seized is not entitled to lawfully possess.

18 ~~(f) Filing of petition. The State shall file a petition for forfeiture of any~~ 19 ~~property seized under section 4242 of this title promptly, but not more than~~

4 ~~named in the petition as provided for in Rule 4 of the Vermont Rules of Civil~~
5 ~~Procedure. In addition, the State shall cause notice of the petition to be~~ 6 ~~published in a newspaper of general circulation in the State, as ordered by the~~ 7 ~~court. The petition shall state:~~

9 ~~description of the property subject to forfeiture, and the type and quantity of~~

15 § 4244. FORFEITURE HEARING HEARINGS

16 ~~(a) Within 60 days following service of notice of seizure and forfeiture~~
17 ~~under section 4243 of this title, a claimant may file a demand for judicial~~ 18 ~~determination of the forfeiture. The demand must be in the form of a civil~~ 19 ~~complaint accompanied by a sworn affidavit setting forth the facts upon which~~ 20 ~~the claimant intends to rely, including, if relevant, the noncriminal source of~~ 21 ~~the asset or currency at issue. The demand must be filed with the court~~

1 ~~administrator in the county in which the seizure occurred.~~ Defendant's
2 forfeiture hearing. The Criminal Division shall consider the loss of property
3 subject to forfeiture as a criminal sanction as part of and following the 4 prosecution of the underlying crime. The Criminal Division has discretion to 5 schedule the criminal forfeiture hearing as soon as practicable after the 6 defendant's conviction of the offense subjecting the person to forfeiture under
7 section 4241 of this title, including concurrent with sentencing. The hearing
8 shall be conducted by the Criminal Division without a jury.

9 (b) ~~The court shall hold a hearing on the petition as soon as practicable~~
10 ~~after, and in any event no later than 90 days following, the conclusion of the~~ 11 ~~criminal prosecution.~~ Exceptions to the conviction requirement. The Criminal
12 Division may waive the conviction requirements of section 4243 of this title 13 and subsection (a) of this section and grant title to the subject property to the 14 State if the State files a motion not fewer than 90 days after seizure and shows
15 by a preponderance of the evidence that, before conviction, the defendant:

16 (1) died;

17 (2) was deported by the U.S. government;

18 (3) abandoned the property; or

19 (4) fled the jurisdiction.

20 (c) ~~A lienholder who has received notice of a forfeiture proceeding may~~ 21 ~~intervene as a party. If the court finds that the lienholder has a valid, good~~

1 ~~faith interest in the subject property which is not held through a straw~~
2 ~~purchase, trust, or otherwise for the actual benefit of another and that the~~
3 ~~lienholder did not at any time have knowledge or reason to believe that the~~ 4 ~~property was being or would be used in violation of the law, the court upon~~ 5 ~~forfeiture shall order compensation to the lienholder to the extent of the~~ 6 ~~lienholder's interest.~~ Proportionality.

7 (1) The defendant, owner, co-owner, or other regular user of the 8 property may petition the Criminal Division to determine whether the 9 forfeiture is unconstitutionally excessive under the Constitutions of the State of 10 Vermont or the United States. At the Criminal Division's discretion, it may 11 hold a proportionality hearing:

12 (A) as a separate hearing; or

13 (B) at the same time as a hearing pursuant to Rule 41(f) of the 14 Vermont Rules of Criminal Procedure, a prompt postseizure proceeding
15 pursuant to section 4242a of this title or a forfeiture hearing pursuant to section 16 4244 of this title.

17 (2) The defendant has the burden of establishing that the forfeiture is 18 unconstitutionally excessive by a preponderance of the evidence at a hearing 19 conducted by the Criminal Division without a jury. In determining whether the 20 forfeiture is unconstitutionally excessive, the Criminal Division may consider 21 all relevant factors including:

1 (A) the seriousness of the underlying crime and its impact on the
2 community, including the duration of the activity, use of a firearm, and harm
3 caused by the defendant;

4 (B) the extent to which the defendant participated in the underlying 5 crime;

6 (C) the extent to which the subject property was used in committing
7 the crime;

8 (D) whether the underlying crime was completed or attempted;

9 (E) the hardship to the defendant if the forfeiture of a motor vehicle
10 would deprive the defendant of the defendant's livelihood; and

11 (F) if forfeiture of the subject property is an undue hardship to the 12 defendant's family.

13 (3) In determining the value of the instrumentality subject to forfeiture,
14 the Criminal Division may consider all relevant facts related to the fair market
15 value of the property, including any publications identified by the Attorney
16 General pursuant to subsection 4241(d) of this title.

17 (4) The Criminal Division shall not consider the value of the subject
18 property to the State in determining whether the forfeiture is unconstitutionally 19 excessive.

20 ~~(d) The court shall not order the forfeiture of property if an owner, co-~~
21 ~~owner, or person who regularly uses the property, other than the defendant,~~

1 ~~shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the owner, co-owner, or regular~~
2 ~~user did not consent to or have any express or implied knowledge that the~~
3 ~~property was being or was intended to be used in a manner that would subject~~
4 ~~the property to forfeiture, or that the owner, co-owner, or regular user had no~~
5 ~~reasonable opportunity or capacity to prevent the defendant from using the~~ 6 ~~property.~~ Lienholder hearing. The Criminal Division shall not order the 7 forfeiture of property subject to a lienholder's interest without a hearing upon 8 petition by the lienholder, other than the defendant. A lienholder who has 9 received notice of a criminal forfeiture proceeding may petition the Criminal 10 Division at any time before it enters judgement in the prosecution of the 11 underlying offense or grants a motion pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.
12 The Criminal Division shall hear the petition within 30 days after its filing or 13 at the court's discretion. The hearing shall be conducted by the Criminal
14 Division without a jury and the hearing may be consolidated with any other 15 hearing before the trial in the underlying prosecution. If a lienholder shows by 16 clear and convincing evidence that the lienholder has a valid, good faith
17 interest in the subject property that is not held through a straw purchase, trust, 18 or otherwise for the actual benefit of another and that the lienholder did not at 19 any time have actual knowledge or reason to believe that the property was 20 being or would be used in violation of the law, the Criminal Division shall 21 order return of the property to the lienholder or compensation to the lienholder

1 to the extent of value of the lienholder's interest, whichever is of less cost or 2 expense to effectuate.

3 ~~(e) The proceeding shall be against the property and shall be deemed~~
4 ~~civil in nature. The State shall have the burden of proving all material facts by~~
5 ~~clear and convincing evidence. Innocent owner hearing. The Criminal~~
6 ~~Division shall not order the forfeiture of property of an owner, co-owner, or~~
7 ~~person who regularly uses the property, other than the defendant, without a~~
8 ~~hearing upon petition by the owner, co-owner, or person who regularly uses~~
9 ~~the property.~~

10 (1) An owner, co-owner, or person who regularly uses the property,
11 other than the defendant, may petition the Criminal Division at any time before
12 it enters judgement in the prosecution of the underlying offense or grants a 13 motion pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

14 (2) The petition may be a simple written statement that sets forth:

15 (A) the right, title, or interest in the property of the owner, co-owner,
16 or person who regularly uses the property;

17 (B) the time and circumstances of the acquisition of the interest in the 18 property;

19 (C) additional relevant facts supporting the petition; and

20 (D) a request for the return of the property or other relief sought by 21 the owner, co-owner, or person who regularly uses the property.

1 (3) The Criminal Division shall hear the petition within 30 days after its 2 filing or at the court’s discretion. The hearing shall be conducted by the 3 Criminal Division without a jury and the hearing may be consolidated with any 4 other hearing before the trial in the underlying prosecution.

5 (4) The owner, co-owner, or person who regularly uses the property,
6 other than the defendant, has the burden to prove by clear and convincing
7 evidence the validity of ownership interest or regular use. If the owner, co-
8 owner, or person who regularly uses the property meets the burden, the State
9 has the burden to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the owner, co-10 owner, or regular user did consent to or have actual knowledge that the 11 property was being or was intended to be used in a manner that would subject
12 the property to forfeiture. If the State fails to meet its burden, the Criminal 13 Division shall order return of the property. As used in this subsection and 14 subsection (d) of this section, “actual knowledge” means a direct and clear
15 awareness of information, a fact, or a condition.

16 (5) The Criminal Division may impose reasonable conditions, including 17 the use of photographic evidence, to protect access to property subject to this 18 section and its use in later proceedings.

19 ~~(f) The court shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall~~
20 ~~issue a final order. If the petition is granted, the court shall order the property~~
21 ~~held for evidentiary purposes, delivered to the State Treasurer, or, in the case~~

1 ~~of regulated drugs or property which is harmful to the public, destroyed~~

2 Judgment. The Criminal Division shall enter judgment:

3 (1) dismissing the forfeiture proceeding and returning the subject
4 property to the rightful owner if the State fails to meet its burden in the 5 underlying criminal prosecution or the defendant’s forfeiture hearing pursuant 6 to subsection (a) of this section except, in the case of regulated drugs or 7 property that is harmful to the public, the subject property shall be destroyed;

8 (2) forfeiting the subject property if the State meets its burden in the 9 underlying criminal prosecution and the forfeiture proceedings pursuant to 10 subsection (a) of this section; or

11 (3) following a hearing or at court’s discretion pursuant to a stipulation
12 or plea agreement.

13 § 4244a. APPEAL

14 The defendant may appeal the Criminal Division’s decision regarding the 15 seizure of forfeiture of property following final judgment in the forfeiture
16 proceeding pursuant to the Vermont Rules of Criminal Procedure.

17 § 4245. REMISSION OR MITIGATION OF FORFEITURE TO THE 18 STATE’S ATTORNEY

19 ~~(a) On petition filed within 90 days after completion of a forfeiture~~ 20 ~~proceeding, a court that issued a forfeiture order pursuant to section 4244 of~~ 21 ~~this title~~ request by an owner, co-owner, or person who regularly uses the

1 property, other than by the defendant, made at any time before the Criminal
2 Division enters judgment in the prosecution of the underlying offense or grants
3 a motion pursuant to subsection (b) of section 4244 a State’s Attorney may 4 ~~order~~ exercise prosecutorial discretion and determine that the forfeiture be
5 remitted or mitigated. The ~~petition~~ request shall be sworn and shall include all 6 information necessary for its resolution or shall describe where such
7 information can be obtained. Upon receiving a ~~petition~~ request, the ~~court~~
8 State’s Attorney shall investigate and may conduct ~~a~~ an hearing interview if in 9 ~~its~~ the State’s Attorney’s judgment it would be helpful to the resolution of the 10 ~~petition~~ request. The ~~court~~ State’s Attorney shall either approve or reject the 11 ~~petition~~ request within ~~90~~ 30 days.

12 (b) The ~~court~~ State’s Attorney may remit or mitigate a forfeiture pursuant 13 to this subchapter upon finding that relief should be granted to avoid extreme
14 hardship or upon finding that the ~~petitioner~~ requestor has a valid, good faith
15 interest in the property ~~which~~ that is not held through a straw purchase, trust, 16 or otherwise for the benefit of another ~~and that the petitioner did not at any~~ 17 ~~time have knowledge or reason to believe that the property was being or would~~ 18 ~~be used in violation of the law.~~
