Subject: Annual Report – Driver’s Privacy Protection Act

Background:

In 1994 Congress enacted the Driver’s Privacy Protection Act, also known as DPPA to protect the personal information contained on an individual’s vehicle records. Personal information is information that identifies an individual, such as name, address, telephone number, medical or disability information, photograph or digital image, and license or social security number. Information relating to motor vehicle accidents, driving violations, or a driver’s license or

In accordance with Act 149 of 2020 Section 27, the Department of Motor Vehicles has prepared the following report on the changes the Department has made to its policies and practices surrounding the release of personal information pursuant to 23 V.S.A § 104 and 114.

Driver Privacy Protection Policy

Statutory Reference:

18 U.S.C. §2721 - Prohibition on release and use of certain personal information from State motor vehicle records

23 V.S.A. §104 – Public records

- I. Statement of Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the State of Vermont, Department of Motor Vehicles is in substantial compliance with the Driver Privacy Protection Act of 1994. The policy has been developed to protect an individual's rights to privacy to the extent possible while allowing access to targeted information for legitimate purposes.
- II. Definitions:
 - a. "Motor Vehicle Records" shall mean any record that pertains to a motor vehicle operator's permit, driver's license, motor vehicle title, motor vehicle registration, or identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles.
 - b. "Person" shall mean an individual, organization or entity, but does not include this State or any Agency thereof.
 - c. "Named Person" shall mean that, depending upon the type of information sought, the person making the request has furnished either the name and date of birth of an individual or the registration plate number or VIN of a vehicle.
 - d. "Personal Information" shall mean information in a motor vehicle record that identifies an individual, including an individual's photograph or computerized image, social security number, driver identification number, name, address other than the five-digit zip code, telephone number, and medical or disability information, but does not include information on vehicle accidents, driving violations and driver's license and registration status.
 - e. "Disclosure" shall mean releasing information from Department records requested under either 1 V.S.A. Chapter 5, Subchapter 3, 23 V.S.A. Chapter 3 or the Driver Privacy Protection Policy, as applicable. Disclosure shall be subject to Department system and resources capabilities and established costs.
- III. Prohibition on Release and Use of Certain Personal Information from Motor Vehicle Records: Except as specifically provided for, the Department of Motor Vehicles (the "Department") and any officer, employee or contractor thereof shall not knowingly disclose or otherwise make available to any person, personal information about any individual obtained by the Department in connection with a motor vehicle record.
- IV. Release and Use of Certain Personal Information from Motor Vehicle Records:
 - a. Persons requesting personal information shall properly identify themselves to the Department and shall make all requests for personal information under oath in accordance with 23 V.S.A. § 201 and on a form or in a manner satisfactory to the Department.
 - b. Unless personal information is confidential or exempt from disclosure under some other provisions of law, personal information in a motor vehicle record shall be disclosed for legitimate purposes as follows:
 - i. Use in connection with matters of motor vehicle or driver safety and theft, motor vehicle emissions, motor vehicle product alterations, recalls, or advisories, performance monitoring of motor vehicles, motor vehicle parts and dealers by motor vehicle manufacturers and removal of non-owner records from the original owner of the records of motor vehicle manufacturers to carry out the purpose of the Automobile Information Disclosure Act, the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Saving Act, the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966, the Anti-Car Theft Act of 1992, and the Clean Air Act and may be disclosed for the same uses though not specifically required under the reference Acts.

- ii. Further, information may be disclosed for legitimate purposes as follows:
 1. For use by any government agency, including any court or law enforcement agency, in carrying out its functions, or any private person acting on behalf of a government agency in carrying out its functions. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(1))
 - This option is used by government agencies, such as law enforcement or toll operators, to gain information about vehicle owners.
 - Users requesting information for this option must provide proof that they are the entity they claim to be, such as a government identification or a letter on department/agency letterhead.
 2. For use in connection with matters of motor vehicles or driver safety and theft; motor vehicle emissions; motor vehicle product alterations, recalls, or advisories; performance monitoring of motor vehicles, motor vehicle parts, and dealers; motor vehicle market research activities, including survey research; and removal of non-owner records from the original owner records of motor vehicle manufacturers. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(2))
 - This option is generally used by vehicle manufacturers to allow them to contact owners of vehicles effected by recalls or to update their records for future correspondence.
 - Requests using this option must be accompanied by an explanation of intended use on company letterhead.
 3. For use in the formal course of business by a legitimate business or its agents, employees, or contractors to verify the accuracy of personal information submitted by the individual to the business or its agents, employees, or contractors. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(3)(A))

If information provided does not match DMV records, correct information will not be provided. DMV will only disclose that information does not match.

 - This option is typically used by businesses employing drivers with CDLs to verify driving records as required by 49 C.F.R.
 - Businesses requesting this information must provide a letter on company letterhead explaining why they qualify to receive data.
 4. For use in connection with any proceeding in any court or government agency or before any self-regulatory body, including the service of process, investigation in anticipation of litigation, and the execution or enforcement of judgments and orders, or pursuant to an order of any court. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(4))

- This option is typically used by lawyers involved in a case to gain information about a driver or vehicle owner. Potential uses could include to find their address, locate a vehicle, or prove ownership.
 - Persons using this option must provide documentation from an officer of the court (lawyer or law firm) or court describing the intended use.
5. For use by any insurer or insurance support organization, or by a self-insured entity, or its agents, employees, or contractors, in connection with claims investigation activities, antifraud activities, rating, or underwriting. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(6))
 - Typically used by insurance companies to verify ownership of a vehicle involved in a claim or underwriting activities
 - Requests falling under this option must be accompanied by a letter on company letterhead detailing intended use.
 6. For use by an employer, of its agent or insurer, to obtain or verify information relating to a holder of a commercial driver's license which is required under the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1996 [Title XII of Public Law 99-570]. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(9))
 - Generally used by employers with CDL drivers to perform driving record checks of their employees as required by 49 C.F.R.
 - Requests using this option must be accompanied by a letter on company letterhead detailing intended use.
 7. Unrestricted or specified use with written consent of the person who is the subject of the information. This includes information regarding oneself. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(13))
 - This option allows a person to access any information that the Department has on themselves for any purpose that they so choose.
 - Requestors using this option must provide proof of their identity (state issued photo identification – driver's license, learner's permit, or non-driver ID card)
 8. For any use specifically authorized by law that is related to the operation of a motor vehicle or public safety. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(14))
 - This option is generally used by businesses and agencies involved in public safety, such as ambulance services, or with drivers of vehicles that do not require a commercial driver's license to operate.
 - Requestors using this option must provide a letter on company/agency letterhead detailing the intended use of the information and a proof of identity (state issued photo identification – driver's license, learner's permit, or non-driver ID card or agency/company identification card)

9. For use in research activities, and for use in producing statistical reports, so long as the personal information is not published, redisclosed, or used to contact individuals. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(5))
 - Data for research activities will be shared, but personal information is not disclosed.
- iii. The following permissive disclosures are not to be honored:
 1. For use in providing notice to the owners of towed or impounded vehicles. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(7))
 - Owners or lienholders of towed or impounded vehicles may use the existing abandoned vehicle process to gather any information contained in DMV records.
 2. For use by any licensed private investigative agency or licensed security service for any purpose permitted under this subsection. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(8))
 - Private investigators may access information in DMV records through any of the other relevant permissive uses under which the Department shares information.
 3. For use in connection with the operation of private toll transportation facilities. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(10))
 - Currently do not receive requests from private toll operators; information shared with state toll authorities is shared under 18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(1).
 4. For bulk distribution for surveys, marketing or solicitations if the State has obtained the express consent of the person to whom such personal information pertains. (18 U.S.C. §2721(b)(12))
 - The sale of information contained in Department records for survey or solicitation does not benefit Vermonters.
- iv. A person shall have access to motor vehicle records relating to such person upon proof of identity. Motor vehicle records relating to a person may be made available to any other person upon proof, in such form and manner as the Department prescribes, that the written consent of the person who is the subject of the record has been obtained.
- v. Personal information may be disclosed for any other use specifically authorized under the laws of the State if such use is related to the operation of a motor vehicle or public safety.
- c. Information pertaining to Vehicular Accidents, Driving Violations and Driver's License and Registration Status: In the definition of "personal information", there is an express exclusion of information on vehicular accidents, driving violations and driver's license and registration status. Therefore, this information is not considered to be within the scope of the DPPA. Information on vehicular accidents, driving violations and driver's license and registration status will be made available in accordance with 1 V.S.A. Chapter 5, Subchapter 3 and 23 of V.S.A. Chapter 3.
- d. Resale or Redisclosure: A recipient of personal information for a particular use may not use the information or make the information available for any use other than for a use permitted under this policy. The recipient may sell or otherwise make the information available for any use permitted under this policy. A recipient who resells or rediscloses personal information permitted under section III must keep, for a period of 5 years, records identifying each person or entity that received information and the permitted purpose for which the information will be used and must make such records available to the Department of Motor Vehicles upon request.
