

FOOD AND JOB INSECURITY IN VERMONT DURING COVID-19

Results of a representative survey of the same 1,240 Vermonters in March and June 2020

Nearly 1 in 4 Vermonters experienced food insecurity in June 2020

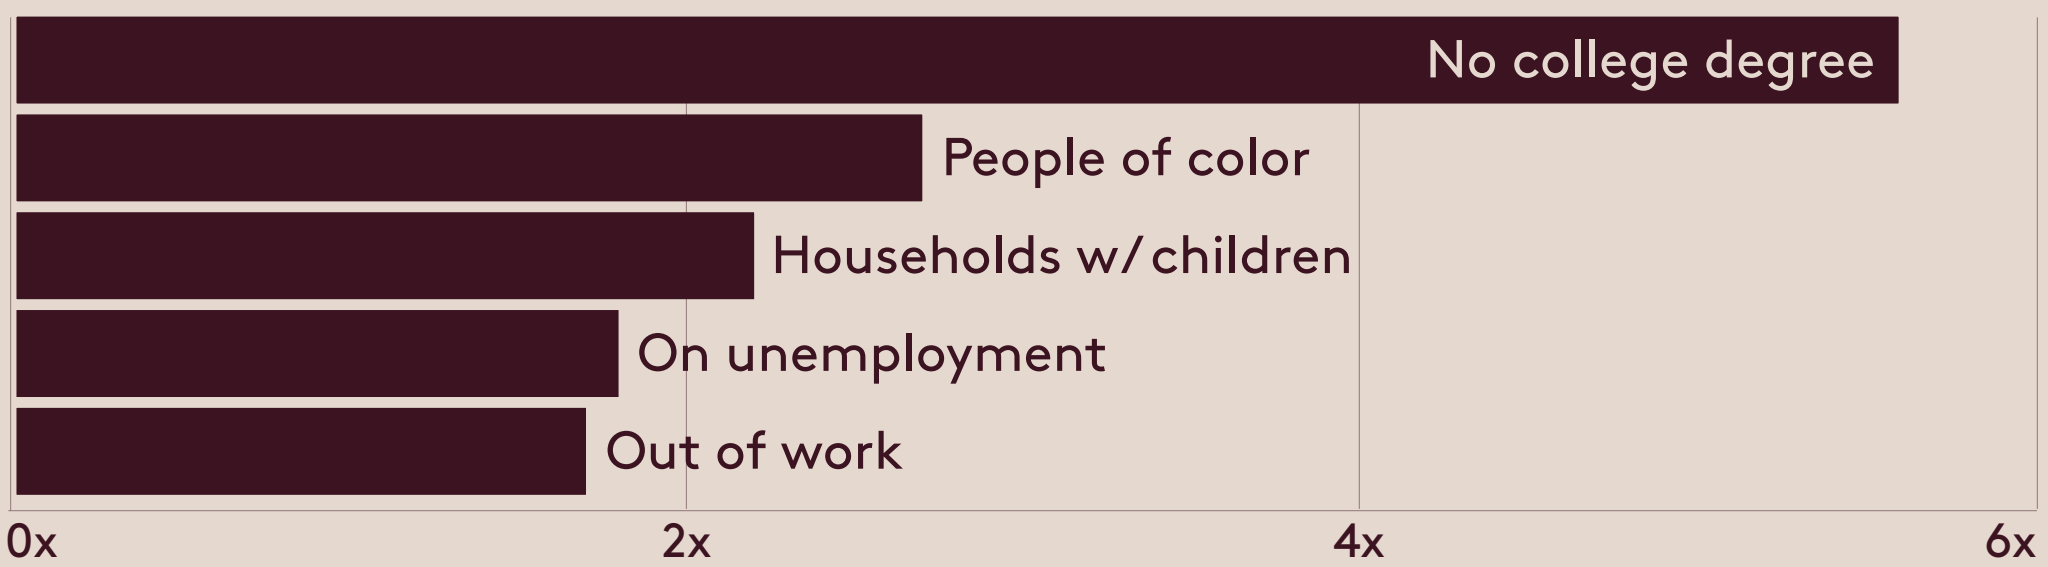

People with greater odds of being food insecure

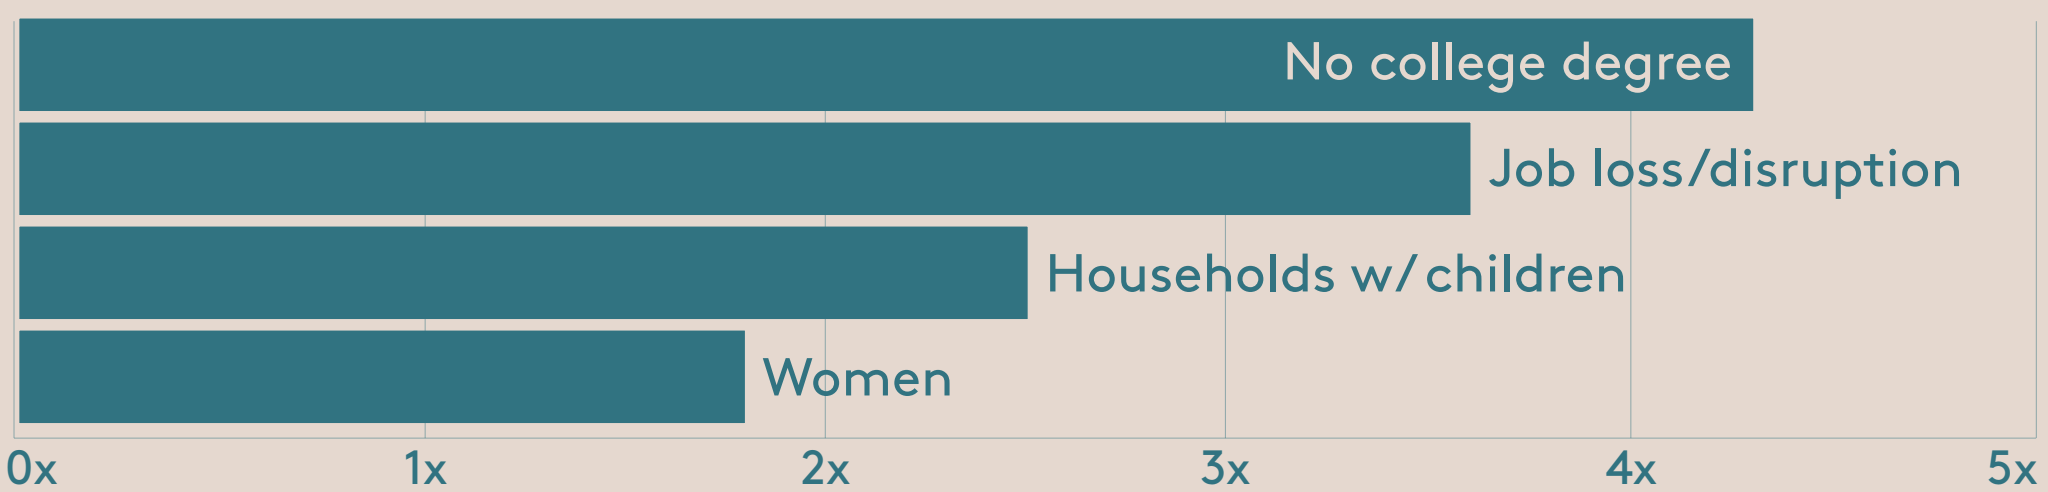

Over 50% experienced job loss or disruption

1 in 5 Vermonters was receiving unemployment in June 2020

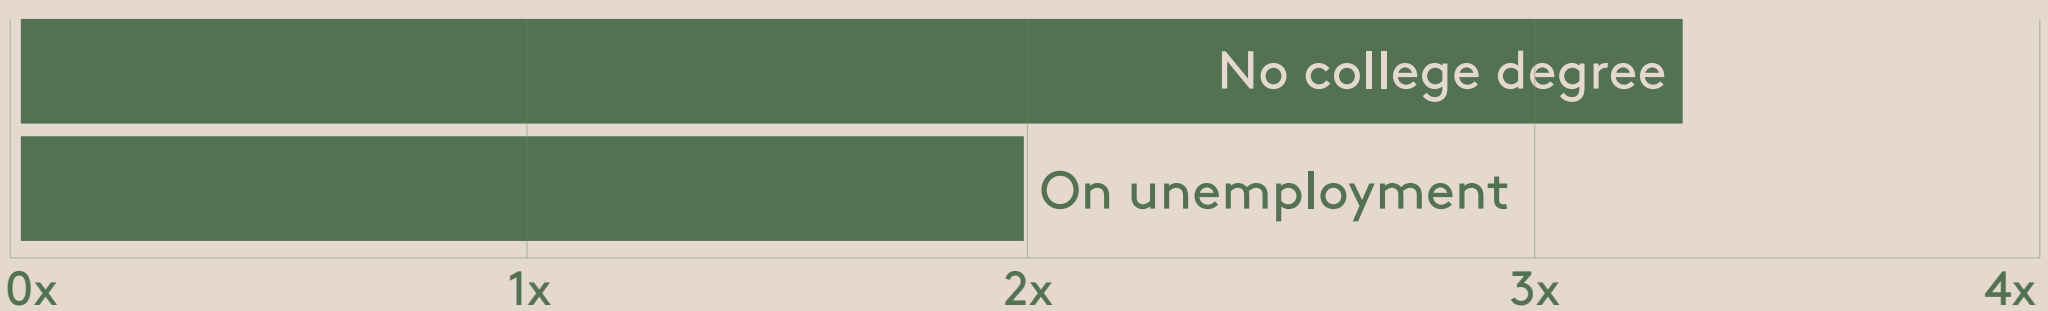

People with greater odds of using food pantries:

Greater odds of using SNAP (3SquaresVT):

Greater odds of using WIC:

Food assistance program use up significantly between March and June 2020

+68%
Food pantries

+49%
SNAP

+17%
WIC

This work is the effort of the National Food Access and COVID Research Team (NFACT), a national collaborative effort to study the effects of COVID-19 on food access, security and systems.

Citation: Meredith T. Niles (1), Anna L. Josephson (2), Farryl Bertmann (1), Emily H. Belarmino (1), Roni Neff (3)
(1) - University of Vermont, (2) - University of Arizona, (3) - Johns Hopkins University

