

Senate Committee on Health & Welfare FY23 Budget Recommendations

The Senate Committee on Health and Welfare (SHW) appreciates the opportunity to share its recommendations regarding the fiscal year 2023 budget with the Senate Committee on Appropriations. SHW understands the significant difficulties associated with making financial decisions in the midst of the ongoing pandemic.

The Committee sees natural linkages within some of our budget recommendations and requests that the Senate Committee on Appropriations think creatively about how to fund these initiatives. For example, could housing funding be used to fund the housing pilots for individuals with developmental disabilities as proposed in H.720 or to fund peer-operated respite centers as proposed by SHW's committee report for S.195? Similarly, are there any opportunities to leverage funding received through the opioid settlement in H.711 for opioid overdose prevention pilot programs in H.728?

As the Senate Committees on Appropriations and on Finance work together on finalizing State revenues and spending, it is important to SHW that Reach Up families be held harmless in order to realize the full benefit of any child care tax credits they may receive. SHW also recommends considering the use of Tobacco Settlement Funds for tobacco prevention activities.
