 - Gradual turnover in key positions, promoting from within

FY 2023 Department of Finance and Management Performance Measures

Department of Finance and Management currently reports two key performance measures

- Measures were selected because they are integral to the department's mission AND they lend themselves to measurement
- 1. Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR)
 - CAFR quality and timeliness is integral to maintaining the state's bond rating
 - Various measures reported around quality and timeliness
- 2. Self-Assessment of Internal Controls (SAIC)
 - Self-assessment encourages departments to follow best financial practices in the State's decentralized accounting environment
 - Because the self-assessment itself is a performance measure tool, it is a data-rich environment to measure success

These measures are incorporated into F&M's budget presentation

- Beginning in FY 2020, F&M reported these measures directly as part of its legislative budget presentation
- Provides increased transparency and oversight of the state's financial administration
