Human Rights Commission FY 2023 Governor's Recommend Budget

MISSION: The Vermont Human Rights Commission is the state agency having jurisdiction over claims of unlawful discrimination in housing, state government employment, and the provision of goods and services by places of public accommodation. The Commission has three statutorily mandated roles: enforcement, education and outreach and policy development.

Governor's Recommended Budget FY 2023 ($ thousands)

FY 2023 SUMMARY & HIGHLIGHTS

- HRC receives a grant from the Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) for investigation of housing discrimination cases. We have estimated receipt of $80,257. The amount received varies each year.
- Staff of 6 Exempt positions including the Executive Director, Executive Staff Assistant, Director of Policy, Education and Outreach, and three Staff Attorney's.
- The HRC budget consists almost entirely of salaries and benefits and fixed operating costs; it has less than $28,572 for variable operating expenses.

Mission

The mission of the Vermont Human Rights Commission is to promote full civil and human rights in Vermont and to protect people from unlawful discrimination.

Jurisdiction

The Human Rights Commission enforces Vermont's anti-discrimination laws:

- The Vermont Fair Housing and Public Accommodations Act (VFHPA), 9 V.S.A. §4500 et seq. The statutory authority to enforce the public accommodations act also permits the Commission to review the gender-neutral bathroom law, 18 V.S.A. §1792 and the anti-harassment provisions of education laws under 16 V.S.A. §11.
- The Vermont Fair Employment Practices Act (VFEPA), 21 V.S.A. §495 et seq.
- Conditions for employment, Nursing Mothers in the Workplace and Flexible Working Conditions under 21 V.S.A. §309.
- The retaliation and anti-discrimination provisions of workers compensation, 21 V.S.A. §710.
- The retaliation and anti-discrimination provisions of the parental family leave act, 21 V.S.A. §472.

Funding Levels

The Commission's budget consists almost entirely of operating costs, salaries and benefits for its six (6) FTE staff. The Commission cannot absorb any budget cuts and remain effective. In fact, the Commission is in need of more staff to reduce the time it takes to complete investigations and ensure that all meritorious cases are heard in court.

Programs

The Commission has one program but four statutorily mandated roles: enforcement, conciliation, education/outreach, and policy development and advancement.

Enforcement (Investigation and Litigation)/Conciliation. The Commission conducts impartial investigations into allegations of discrimination and determines whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that unlawful discrimination occurred. The Commission's staff seeks to resolve complaints through conciliation, and if necessary through formal mediation, both before and after a finding of reasonable grounds by its commissioners. If the Commission finds discrimination and the case cannot be settled, the commissioners may direct the Commission's executive director, who acts as legal counsel, to file suit in court.

Education/Outreach. Commission staff make every effort to engage in public education efforts by developing and delivering curriculum on bias, micro-aggressions, bystander intervention, fair housing, bullying, harassment and hazing, service and assistance animals, civil rights laws and more. Trainings, presentations, and conferences are offered to all including legislators, community members, towns and municipalities, boards and commissions, state agencies and departments, private employers, schools, supervisory unions, hotels, restaurants, etc. The Commission responds affirmatively to requests for training and seeks training in every settlement regardless of whether there's been a finding of reasonable grounds. Additionally, HRC staff may be invited to serve on panels, and attend and speak at various events.

Policy Development. The Commission's executive director engages in on-going policy discussions in the Legislative, Executive and Judicial branches to advance effective public policies on human and civil rights and identify the existence of practices of discrimination that detract from the full enjoyment of those rights. The Commission's litigation efforts are designed to establish clear parameters as to both the rights of individuals and the obligations of entities covered by anti-discrimination statutes. The executive director and director of policy, education and outreach work with the commissioners to set the policy agenda, follow bills, and testify before the Legislature. HRC staff serve on many taskforces, committees and working groups.

How do these programs meet your core mission?

Enforcement through fair and impartial investigations and litigation, as well as conciliation efforts, results in remedies for aggrieved individuals, creates a deterrent to those who engage in discrimination, and vindicates the public's interest. Systemic changes occur through education, outreach and policy development and advancement. Long term success is when discrimination across all protected classes of people is eradicated. In the interim, the Commission measures progress and success in the following ways:

Enforcement/Conciliation - Success in Commission enforcement efforts is evidenced by timely and impartial investigations into allegations of discrimination, reasonable settlements or informal resolutions of complaints and, when necessary, effective deterrence of discriminatory practices through changes in programs and policies, accessibility modifications, trainings, civil penalties and monetary damages for aggrieved parties.

Education/Outreach - Success in the provision of training, both proactive and reactive, is evidenced by the number of people trained who gain a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities, develop a better understanding of how discrimination affects others, and can apply effective, meaningful, practical tools to do better.

Policy Development and Implementation - Success is evidenced by changes or improvements to legislation and/or public policy that enhance and protect the civil and human rights of Vermonters.

Performance Measures

In FY21, the HRC accepted 3 informal cases and 47 formal complaints for processing and investigation. Out of the 47 formal cases opened in FY21, 13 were resolved by the end of the fiscal year. In total, 48 formal cases were resolved in FY21, representing a 23% increase over FY20. Just over 60% of the cases closed in FY21 were resolved by a settlement between parties, either within the Human Rights Commission conciliation framework or through a withdrawal of the case with a private settlement.

The number of cases resolved through conciliation and mediation increased for the second year in a row; from 17 in FY19, to 26 in FY20, to 30 in FY21.

In FY21, the Commission heard 16 cases, compared to 12 in FY20 and 13 in FY19. Several cases contained multiple parties and/or alleged discrimination on the basis of multiple protected categories. Of the 16 cases heard by Commissioners, 24 separate findings were delivered. Commissioners found no reasonable grounds 12 times, and reasonable grounds 12 times, which resulted in 7 cases continuing on to the post-determination settlement phase.

During FY21, the HRC reached a total of 2395 individuals through 50 training and outreach events compared to FY20 when it conducted 46 events that reached approximately 2664 Vermonter

Is there a better way?

YES. Since its inception, the Commission has operated under one of the smallest departmental budgets in the State. The Commission should be the authoritative voice for human and civil rights in Vermont and it has the potential to be a dynamic and effective leader in the pursuit of equal justice.

The Commission has been effective and efficient in enforcing anti-discrimination laws in the State. But, it has largely been an agency that, due to a lack of resources and funding, is poised to react to discrimination, rather than operating proactively. Recently, the Legislature supported the addition of a staff member to the Commission and appropriated the funding necessary to realize this position. The Commission hopes that it can maintain all of its existing staff and add more positions.

Goals

The Commission works to ensure that:

- Cases and inquiries are responded to and resolved in a timely manner that provides people with meaningful results;
- Actions taken by the VHRC are fair, consistent and impartial;
- The public is educated about civil and human rights;
- Communities promote equality, fairness, understanding and acceptance of all;
- Individuals and institutions act effectively to end discrimination;
- The dignity of everyone and the differences among all people are respected;
- Knowledgeable employees work to serve the public's interest in promoting equal opportunity for all Vermonters and visitors and provide the highest quality of customer service to the public.

In the pursuit of social justice, the Commission will continue to:

- Collaborate with public, private, and non-profit organizations;
- Conduct efficient and effective enforcement of civil rights;
- Educate the public about the Commission's role and mission in enforcing civil and human rights;
- Provide an authoritative voice with respect to civil rights in Vermont.

Market

The Commission, with its small staff of six (6) FTE employees (the executive director, three staff attorney investigators, director of policy, education and outreach and executive staff assistant), has responsibility for providing services to all citizens of the state and to all visitors in protected categories.

In FY21, the HRC received 514 calls for assistance from the general public, in comparison to FY20 when the agency logged 656 calls. The reduction in calls in FY21 is possibly due in part to the pandemic and the shortage of staffing at the HRC which required the HRC to not accept any cases for several months. The volume of traffic on the HRC's website during FY21 increased approximately 10% over the previous year, with 28,602 page views.

Resources

The Commission will work zealously to fulfill its mission regardless of funding. The HRC has had to absorb the rising costs of salaries and benefits for its employees. The Commission is not able to cut any of its programs as all are statutorily required. Any cuts to the budget would require a reduction in staff at a time when human and civil rights are under unprecedented attack.

The HRC has an agreement with HUD to investigate housing discrimination complaints that allege violations of both state and federal fair housing law. HUD awarded the Commission $75,000. The federal funding is dependent on the number of housing complaints received that allege discrimination based on a federally protected category. The Commission has no control over the number of cases filed. Federal funding for fair housing has not been targeted for cuts or elimination at this time but it is not guaranteed. If the HRC were to lose this source of funding, the agency would look to the GF to replace this amount in its budget.

Potential Programmatic Changes

Trainings: The Commission has developed and delivered trainings on a variety of subject-areas but hopes to expand its trainings and presentations to include more specific recommendations to agencies and entities that are ready for next steps. This will require surveys, questionnaires, and meetings to develop entity-specific training and recommendations.

Capital Needs for the Program: The HRC has moved offices and is in need of new office furniture and a case management system that will be relatively expensive to purchase one time but inexpensive to maintain.
