

Announcing Willem Jewett's death

(this is the content of an email Diana Barnard sent to the group sponsoring S.74)

Hello team:

I have an update regarding Willem Jewett

His condition was changing quickly over the past week. He had a wonderful day today filled with love, visits from dear friends, and his whole family surrounding him.

He used act 39 to leave this Earth on his own terms this afternoon. It was incredibly peaceful.

He really wants his story to help others so I can tell you I was the prescriber and was in attendance. It was a poignant, peaceful end to a remarkable too-short life.

Cheers to Willem for his help in passing the law. Now he is off raising some hell wherever he is!

Peace,

Diana
