Act No. 5 (H. 28). An act relating to diversion and expungement

Subjects: Criminal procedures; expungement; diversion

This act amends the State's diversion laws to permit individuals who have satisfactorily met all diversion requirements to be eligible for expungement prior to the case being dismissed by the prosecutor. This act also clarifies that all forms of restitution related to a case must be paid and emphasizes that all conditions of diversion must be met prior to expungement.
