Act No. 100 (H.40). An act relating to nonconsensual removal of or tampering with a condom

Subjects: Sexual assault; nonconsensual removal of or tampering with a sexually protective device

This act establishes a private civil right of action if a person intentionally and without consent removed or tampered with a condom prior to or during a sexual act in a manner likely to render it ineffective when consent to the sexual act was given by the other person with the explicit understanding that a condom would be used. A person who is harmed may sue for compensatory damages, punitive damages, and reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

Effective Date: July 1, 2024
