
This act summary is provided for the convenience of the public and members of the General Assembly. It is intended to provide a general summary of the act and may not be exhaustive. It has been prepared by the staff of the Office of Legislative Counsel without input from members of the General Assembly. It is not intended to aid in the interpretation of legislation or to serve as a source of legislative intent.

Act No. 155 (H.704). An act relating to disclosure of compensation in job advertisements

Subjects: Labor; employment practices; fair employment practices; job openings; disclosure of compensation

This act requires most written job advertisements to include certain information regarding the type and range of monetary compensation that an employer expects to offer. The act also requires the Attorney General's Office to publish guidance on the law's requirements for both employers and employees.

Effective Date: July 1, 2025.