S.195 Context: Data as of 12/10/23

Repeat Offenses: Of those persons with pending cases, 3,485 defendants had two or more criminal dockets and represented 12,688 pending criminal dockets (of the total pending 21,619 dockets). Meaning, nearly 60% (58.68%) of pending criminal dockets involve persons with two or more dockets—alleged to have committed repeated criminal conduct (a docket may, typically, include multiple individual counts).

Total Persons with a pending case: As of 12/10/23 there were 12,416 persons with at least one pending criminal docket (total pending criminal dockets = 21,619).

Failure to Appear Arrest Warrants (FTA Aws): 5,023 (between 1/1/23-12/29/23).

VCRs: Total filed counts for Violations of Conditions of Release (VCRs) (as of 1/9/24): 4,605.

Misdemeanors: 14,772 (note VT is one of the only states where the misdemeanor cut-off is the 2-year penalty, most states have the 1-year cut-off).

Felonies: 6,748 (83 pending murder/attempted murder cases as of 12/10/23 and more than 90 as of 3/1/24).

Retail theft: 1,596 pending "retail" dockets. Note, as with any filed information, a docket may have multiple counts, meaning that there may be many more counts of retail theft (e.g., you could have a 5-count information with 5 counts of retail theft in a single docket/case). Likely most retail theft cases are charged as a misdemeanor.

"Criminal Case" data DOES NOT include Appeals, Family Division matters (CHINS, Juvenile Delinquency, Youthful Offender, ERPOs), or Civil Division matters assigned to SAS (e.g., PCRs). (Data Source, Vermont Judiciary 12/10/23)

S.195's BAIL-ANALYSIS-RELATED AMENDMENTS, AS PASSED BY THE SENATE

- VCRs & Noncompliance with Court Orders" should be viewed as essential factors in the analysis of "Risk of Flight from Prosecution."
- S.195 AMENDS 13 V. 7576(9) definition of "Flight from Prosecution" to emphasize the aim that noncompliance with court orders and failures to appear at court should always be considered in the analysis of "RISK" of Flight from Prosecution" and should be considered as essential factors in the court's 13 V. 7554 analysis when deciding whether to impose bail or impose elevated conditions of release.

	AS PASSE 2024	D BY SENATE	S.195 age 24 of 26

VCRs Under Existing Law versus S.195's Newly Contemplated

Summary Proceeding, 7554e

4/3/24 draft for discussion purposes

Title 13 : Crimes and Criminal Procedure, Chapter 229 : Bail and Recognizances (Cite as: 13 V.S.A. § 7559)

§ 7559. Release; designation; sanctions (the State may pursue criminal contempt, filed as a misdemeanor ["a VCR"] under 13 V. 7559)

(e) The State's Attorney may commence a prosecution for criminal contempt under Rule 42 of the Vermont Rules of Criminal Procedure against a person who violates a condition of release imposed under section 7554 of this title. The maximum penalty that may be imposed under this subsection shall be a fine of $1,000.00 or imprisonment for six months, or both. Upon commencement of a prosecution for criminal contempt, the court shall review, in accordance with section 7554 of this title, and may continue or modify conditions of release or terminate release of the person.

Caselaw Example: State v. Hanson, No. 24-AP-050, 2024 WL 752396, at *1 (Vt. Feb. 22, 2024)

Defendant charged in August 2023 with reckless endangerment, in violation of 13 V.S.A. § 1025, and with simple assault, in violation of 13 V.S.A. § 1023(a)(1), relating to an altercation with his neighbor. According to the State's probable cause affidavit, defendant confronted neighbor, accusing her of taking his dog, and proceeded to punch her in the head, pull her hair, rip her shirt, and fire one round from his shotgun.

In an August 7 order, the court imposed several conditions of release, including requirements that defendant not have contact with neighbor and that he not have or use any firearms. Defendant was released pursuant to the conditions. Neighbor subsequently obtained a protective order against defendant.

On November 13, 2023, police responded to a call from neighbor, who accused defendant of shouting threats at her across their shared property line. According to neighbor, defendant told her that she was "dead already" and that he would burn her house down. Defendant was arrested and charged with two counts of violating his conditions of release, 13 V.S.A. § 7559(e), and one count of violation of an abuse prevention order, 13 V.S.A. § 1030. The court imposed additional conditions of release, including $200 cash bail, curfew, and supervision by a court-approved responsible adult.

NOTE: As noted by the Chief Superior Court Judge, prior to crossover, in Senate testimony, S.195 as passed by the Senate creates a new summary VCR proceeding (7554e) that replicates what can already be accomplished and considered through a 13 V.S.A. § 7559 filing and review.

Sec. 4. 13 V.S.A. § 7554e is added to read:

§ 7554e. VIOLATIONS OF CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

(a) Procedure.

S.195's Amendments to 13. V. 7575

- 7 Sec. 7. 13 V.S.A. § 7575 is amended to read:
- 8 § 7575. REVOCATION OF THE RIGHT TO BAIL
- Upon a more detailed review of S.195, following the crossover process, and to the degree that the proposed amendments to 13 V. 7575 are designed to codify existing caselaw and/or allow for greater utilization of 13 V. 7575, SAS believes that the contemplated changes to 13 V. 7575 should be removed from S.195.
- The SAS Exec. Committee and SAS EDO, including its appellate counsel, have noted that the amended language presents questions and concerns that warrant a pause to allow for a more substantive review (if there is a desire to provide for easier utilization of 13 V. 7575).

COMMUNITY EXPECTATIONS V. REALITY: REPEAT OFFENSES / BAIL / VCRs

- There is often confusion among community members concerning how and what bail is really for. It is not unusual to have a defendant with 10+ charges with multiple VCRs and "failures to appear" in court. SAS has seen an increase in cycles of noncompliance when defendants repeatedly violate conditions, FTA, commit new crimes, are arrested on a warrant, and are then released again on conditions.
- It is important to remember that while the prosecutor may request bail, it is the Court that imposes bail. Further, Courts may impose bail, or conditions, even without a request from the State. Cash bail remains a needed judicial tool to mitigate risk of flight from prosecution in those circumstances where conditions of release are unable to mitigate risk of flight.
- HOLD WITHOUT BAIL." Defs can only be held without bail for certain crimes of violence (13 V. 7553a) & life offenses (13 V. 7553) very limited circumstances.
- "IMPOSITION OF BAIL." Cash bail is a mechanism utilized by Judges, in Vermont, only to "mitigate the risk of flight from prosecution." 13 V. 7554 / 13 V. 7576.
- 13 V. 7554(a)(1). COURTS CONSIDER . . . the following factors when imposing bail and mitigating risk of flight from prosecution: {13 V. 7554(a) + Caselaw}: "in addition to any other factors...." the seriousness, number of offenses, the nature and circumstances of the offense charged etc. amongst others. State v. Pratt (2017). Often prior failures to appear (FTAs) are heavily relied upon in the bail analysis.
- THE CURRENT DEFINITION OF 13 V. 7576(9) does not expressly include contemplation of VCRs, noncompliance with court orders or failures to appear, but "flight from prosecution" is intended to include "any action or behavior undertaken by a person charged with a criminal offense to avoid court proceedings." (S.195 makes clear that VCRs, noncompliance with court orders, and failures to appear should be considered in the 7554 analysis).

The chart above reflects DOC "Current Detainees" as of 1/3/2024 at 8:48am. 17 people were detained on less than $1,000 bail. These may entail misdemeanor or felony offenses. 221 were held on HWOB ("held without bail," which is limited to serious felony offenses, and only maintained after an evidentiary hearing.). DOC has noted that this is only a snapshot of who at an exact point in time was detained in Vermont correctional facilities with a corresponding bail amount (or held without bail/with stipulations). This means the individuals incarcerated with a bail amount in this table have not yet paid their bail as of 8:48am on 1/3/2024 (but very well might etc.). Other prior snapshot data is provided below from September 2023 and February 2023.

The data available does not delineate between when bail was imposed during the course of a case – whether imposed at arraignment or subsequently, and does not capture circumstances where bail was posted and then a higher bail amount was set based on nonappearance or where bail was set and then posted and the person was released outside the time period captured by the snapshot.

The table above, from February 2023: 176 of 445 individuals from this data set were held for lack of bail. 233 are noted as held without bail (which is limited to serious felony offenses, and only maintained after an evidentiary hearing). The other 36 individuals held with 0 bail are attributable to lack of a responsible adult or other circumstances not involving setting of cash bail by a court. In summary, there was a total of 3 women and 16 men on bail in amounts less than $1,000 as of February 14, 2023. These may entail misdemeanor or felony offenses.

(Data Source: DOC snapshot from 2/14/23 was presented to SJC in February 2023 during the course of S.27 testimony from SAS).

Background Information

What type of offenses are resulting in imposition of cash bail?

Recent data from the Department of Corrections indicates that 34 of 428, or 8% of those detained are detained based on a misdemeanor offense. Of this group, three-quarters of the individuals are detained based upon commission of crimes against a person (e.g. domestic assault, simple assault, etc.):

The data available does not delineate between when bail was imposed during the course of a case –whether imposed at arraignment or subsequently – and does not capture circumstances where bail was posted and then a higher bail amount was set based on non-appearance.<sup>2</sup>

In any event, the data demonstrates that the majority of individuals detained are not just felony cases, but they are serious crimes of violence (more than 300 of the 428 detained individuals).

Draft for discussion purposes

- The December 31, 2022, DOC snapshot indicates that 34 individuals were held on misdemeanors, which constituted 0.3% of the total number – signifying a very small percentage of total cases, even if the total number for the year is greater versus that moment in time.
- The number of those detained almost certainly changes daily – as multiple individuals are apprehended on warrants each day and may be held overnight or count toward the population and be released the next day. Others will post bail after a period of time or resolve their cases.

S.287: Legal Mechanisms Related to the Pretrial Revolving Door Issue (SOURCE, DPS: Tucker Jones).

 $\checkmark$

Department of Public Safety Tucker Jones January 24 2024 Senate Judiciary

Legal mechanisms related to pretrial "revolving door" issue

- Imposing bail. Review Act No. 164 from 2018. Repeal this Act (H. 775). Alternatively, consider revisions (S. 287).
  - $200 cap: eliminate, or revise (by striking limit for defendant who has been released pending trial for another offense).
  - Add to judicial factors relating to protection of public in § 7554 (S. 287, p. 7).
  - c. Revise definition of flight from prosecution to expressly include noncompliance with court orders and failures to appear at court hearings. (S. 287, p. 17).
- Flash cites. Give legislative direction to the timing of arraignments for violations of conditions of release, especially when the violation constitutes a new crime. See, e.g., 13 V.S.A. § 1048(b) ("A person cited for domestic assault shall be arraigned on the next business day after the citation is issued except for good cause shown.").
- 3. VCR enforcement scheme. (See S. 287, p. 10.)
- Pretrial risk assessments and needs screenings. Make orders under 13 V.S.A. § 7554c enforceable. These orders are currently unenforceable by statute. See 13 V.S.A. § 7554c(d)(4).
- Civil contempt. Codify civil contempt for pretrial orders to perform certain acts, including orders under § 7554c. Bill language has been drafted and is based on civil contempt for failure to pay child support in 15 V.S.A. § 603. Civil contempt overview: Russell v. Armitage, 166 Vt. 392, 407 (1997) (Morse, J., concurring).
- 6. Revoking bail. Give legislative attention to 13 V.S.A. § 7575, informed by the constitutional standard for revoking bail (see State v. Sauve, 159 Vt. 566, 575 (1993)). Review change to § 7575 in Act 164 in 2018, p. 10, and proposed repeal in H.775, p. 8. Consider a statutory definition for "impedes prosecution" consistent with Sauve. Also, for purposes of policy discussion, compare 13 V.S.A. § 7575 with 18 U.S.C. § 3148.
