

Below is the revised report language we discussed earlier this Session. Thank you for considering taking this up:

ANR shall conduct a stakeholder process and issue a report and recommendations on implementing a riparian protection program including what the elements of the program should be to protect water quality and aquatic habitat and funding needed to implement the program to the House Committee on Environment and Energy and the Senate Committee on Naturals and Energy on or before December 15, 2023.