

Greetings, my name is Dan Nugent from Starksboro Vermont I do applaud your efforts on trying to deal with the subject which is very important, but I am very concerned about these high density areas like Burlington, which is planning a couple thousand units of housing and their sewage plant is already over capacity. My question - Is there a plan for expansion of these sewage treatment plants before they are hooked onto an adversely affect the lake quality?