Supervisory Union
Multiple School Districts,
Two Districts Operate Schools and One District Does Not

Supervisory Union with One School District = Supervisory District
(i.e., school district serves as its own SU)

A school district can take a variety of forms depending on three factors:

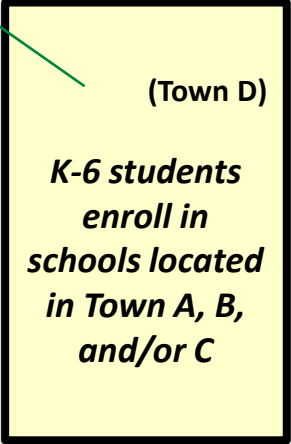

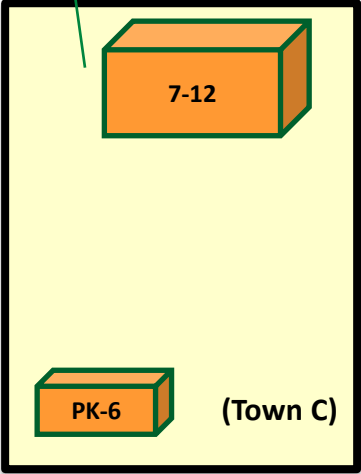

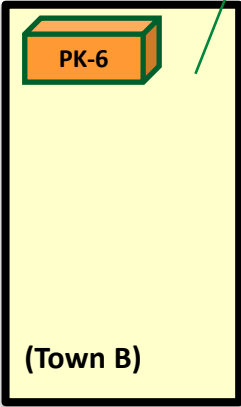

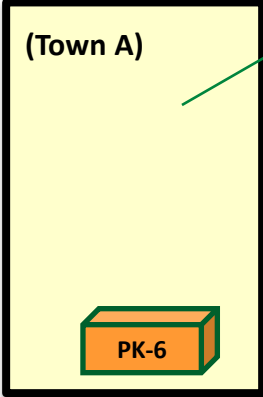

- The number of towns for which it is responsible
- The grades for which it is organized
- The manner in which it provides education

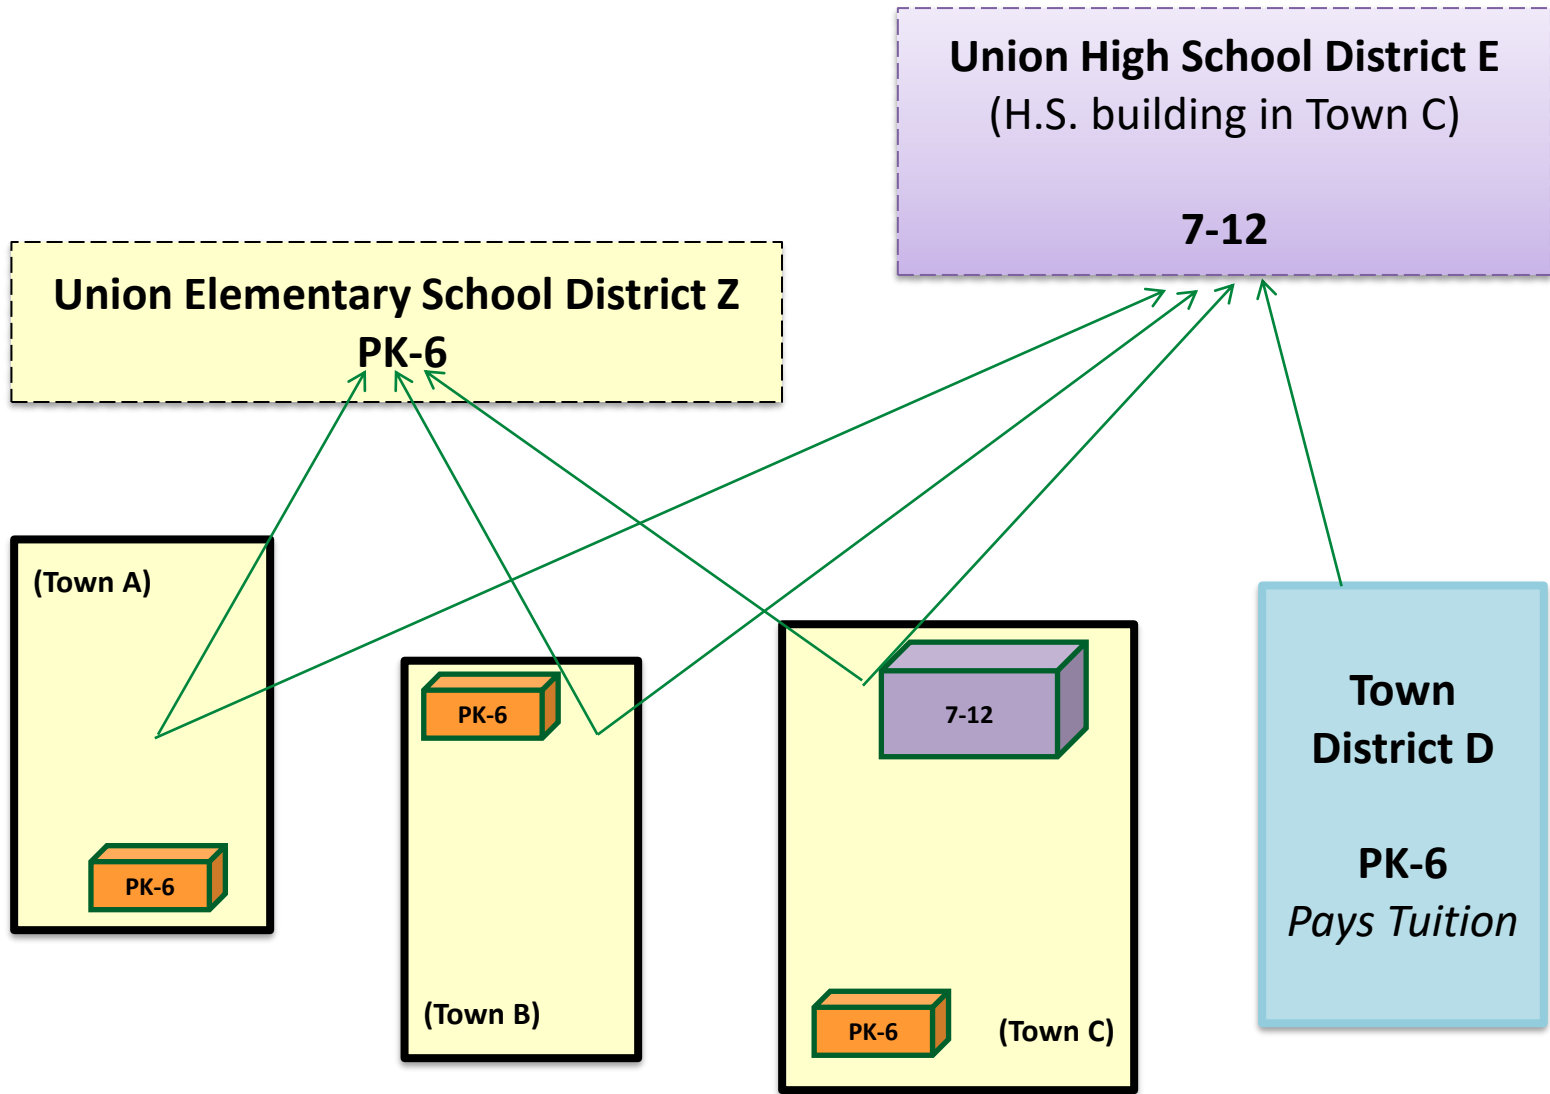

A school district can take a variety of forms depending on three factors:

- The number of towns for which it is responsible
 - One town
 - Multiple towns = Union School District
- The grades for which it is organized
 - All grades PreK-12
 - If for multiple towns = Unified Union School District
 - Some subset of all grades
 - If for multiple towns = Union Elementary School District or Union High School District
- The manner in which it provides education
