TO THE HONORABLE SENATE:

The Committee on Judiciary to which was referred a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Vermont entitled "Proposal 4" respectfully reports that it has considered the same and recommends that the proposal be amended by striking out the proposal in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

PROPOSAL 4

Sec. 1. PURPOSE

(a) This proposal would amend the Constitution of the State of Vermont to specify that the government must not deny equal treatment and respect under the law on account of a person's race, ethnicity, sex, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or national origin. The Constitution is our founding legal document stating the overarching values of our society. This amendment is in keeping with the values espoused by the current Vermont Constitution. Chapter I, Article 1 declares "That all persons are born equally free and independent, and have certain natural, inherent, and unalienable rights." Chapter I, Article 7 states "That government is, or ought to be, instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security of the people." The core value reflected in Article 7 is that all people should be afforded all the benefits and protections bestowed by the government, and that the government should not confer special advantages upon the privileged. This

1	amendment would expand upon the principles of equality and liberty by
2	ensuring that the government does not create or perpetuate the legal, social, or
3	economic inferiority of any class of people. This proposed constitutional
4	amendment is not intended to limit the scope of rights and protections afforded
5	by any other provision in the Vermont Constitution.
6	(b) Providing for equality of rights as a fundamental principle in the
7	Constitution would serve as a foundation for protecting the rights and dignity
8	of historically marginalized populations and addressing existing inequalities.
9	This amendment would reassert the broad principles of personal liberty and
10	equality reflected in the Constitution of the State of Vermont with authoritative
11	force, longevity, and symbolic importance.
12	Sec. 2. Article 23 of Chapter I of the Vermont Constitution is added to read:
13	Article 23. [Equality of rights]
14	That the people are guaranteed equal protection under the law. The State shall
15	not deny equal treatment and respect under the law on account of a person's
16	race, ethnicity, sex, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity,
17	gender expression, or national origin. Nothing in this Article shall be
18	interpreted or applied to prevent the adoption or implementation of measures
19	intended to provide equality of treatment and opportunity for members of
20	groups that have historically been subject to discrimination.
21

1	Sec. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE
2	The amendment set forth in Sec. 2 shall become a part of the Constitut	ion of
3	the State of Vermont on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of Noven	nber
4	2026 when ratified and adopted by the people of this State in accordance	with
5	the provisions of 17 V.S.A. chapter 32.
