3 in 13 V.S.A. § 1021 even while hospitalized, and clinical interventions have 4 failed to address the risk of harm to the person or others;

5 (ii) may grant the motion if it finds that the person has received
6 involuntary medication pursuant to section 7624 of this title during the past
7 two years and, based upon the person’s response to previous and ongoing 8 treatment, there is good cause to believe that additional time will not result in 9 the person establishing a therapeutic relationship with providers or regaining
10 competence.

12 this subdivision, the hearing shall be held within ten days from the date of the

20 failed to address the risk of harm to the person or others;

1                   (ii) may grant the motion if it finds that the person has received
2 involuntary medication pursuant to section 7624 of this title during the past
3 two years and, based upon the person’s response to previous and ongoing
4 treatment, there is good cause to believe that additional time will not result in 5 the person establishing a therapeutic relationship with providers or regaining
6 competence.

7                   (B) If the court grants the motion for expedited hearing pursuant to 8 this subdivision, the hearing shall be held within three days from the date of 14 the Commissioner shall request that the court and both parties’ attorneys 15 provide the reasons for the delay. The Commissioner shall submit a report to 16 the court, the Secretary of Human Services, and the patient’s attorney that

3           person to receive whatever treatment other than hospitalization is appropriate 4           for a period of 90 days.

5           (2) If the Commissioner determines that treatment at a forensic facility 6           is appropriate, and the court finds that treatment at a forensic facility is the 7           least restrictive setting adequate to meet the person’s needs, the court shall 8           order the person to receive treatment there for a period of 90 days. The court 9           may at any time, on its own motion or on motion of an interested party, review

12          court either that the patient is not complying with the order or that the 14          needs, the court may, after proper hearing:

15               (1) ~~Consider~~ consider other alternatives, modify its original order, and 5 further treatment and for an order of continued treatment.

6 (b) An application for an order authorizing continuing treatment shall

8 period of time. A secure residential recovery facility shall not be used for any 9 purpose other than the purposes permitted by this section.

10       Sec. 6. 18 V.S.A. § 7621 is amended to read:
