

No. R-98. House concurrent resolution in memory of former Representative and Secretary of Administration Kathleen C. Hoyt of Norwich.

(H.C.R.78)

Offered by Representatives Holcombe of Norwich, Masland of Thetford, and Ode of Burlington

Whereas, the pioneering State government leadership of former Representative Kathleen C. Hoyt serves as a model for others, and

Whereas, she was born in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina, on June 6, 1942; was her high school class valedictorian; graduated from the University of North Carolina (UNC), Greensboro; and unfortunately, her UNC-Chapel Hill graduate school scholarship was discriminatorily not renewed because it was transferred to a male student, a terrible decision, and

Whereas, when driving through Vermont, en route to visiting Expo 67 in Montreal, she found the State to be “the most magical place” and moved here in 1968, meeting her future husband, the late former Representative Norris “Norrie” Hoyt of Norwich, and propitiously for both, they were married at the Vermont State House in 1974, and

Whereas, Kathy Hoyt served as director of planning at the Agency of Human Services, worked at the Vermont Office of Equal Opportunity, and was a member of the Vermont Commission on Women before taking time to raise her sons, Christopher and Michael, then resumed her public service at the Department of Employment and Training, where she became Commissioner, and

Whereas, Governor Madeleine Kunin recognized Kathy Hoyt’s expertise and effectiveness as an administrator and appointed her Chief of Staff and subsequently, Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs, and

Whereas, in August 1991, when Lieutenant Governor Howard Dean suddenly became Governor, he turned to Kathy Hoyt to oversee the expedited transition, returning her to the role of Chief of Staff, and later appointed her as Vermont’s first female Secretary of Administration, and

Whereas, after the Dean administration’s conclusion, Kathy Hoyt served on nonprofit and corporate boards, including as a University of Vermont trustee; was an advisor to Governors Douglas and Shumlin; and concluded her public service as the House member from Norwich, serving in the seat her husband once held, and

Whereas, after an illustrious life, Kathy Hoyt died at 82 years of age on March 7, 2025 in the presence of her family, now therefore be it
