2 convicted of the crime.

3 § 172. NOTICE OF PROFITS FROM A CRIME

4 (a) Every person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, or other legal 5 entity that knowingly contracts for, pays, or agrees to pay any profits from a 6 crime to a person charged with or convicted of that crime shall give written 7 notice to the Attorney General of the payment or obligation to pay as soon as is 8 practicable after discovering that the payment is or will be a profit from a 9 crime.

10 (b) The Attorney General, upon receipt of notice of a contract, agreement 11 to pay, or payment of profits of the crime shall send written notice of the 12 existence of such profits to all known victims of the crime at their last known

14 § 173. ACTIONS TO RECOVER PROFITS FROM A CRIME

15 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including any statute of 16 limitations, any crime victim shall have the right to bring a civil action in a
17 court of competent jurisdiction to recover money damages from a person
18 convicted of that crime, or the legal representative of that convicted person,

12 Sec. 31. FINDINGS

13 The General Assembly finds:

14 (1) The pilot accountability court in Chittenden County, which was 15 referred to as the Pilot Accountability Court, was a project proposed by the 16 Governor and implemented by the Judiciary in collaboration with the 17 Chittenden County State's Attorney, the Department of State's Attorneys and 18 Sheriffs, the Chittenden County Public Defender's Office, the Agency of 19 Human Services, the Chittenden County Sheriff's Office, and the Department
20 of Public Safety, Division of Emergency Management.

1           (2) The docket helped clear a backlog of repeat offender criminal cases
2           involving individuals with five or more open charges, many of whom were 3           unhoused and struggling with substance use issues or mental health challenges.
4           The docket brought together judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys, and human
5           services staff to resolve cases faster and connect individuals to the services
6           they needed.

7           (3) The docket achieved a clearance rate of approximately 300 percent
8           or roughly three times the Judiciary’s typical clearance rate.

9           (4) More importantly, repeat offenders were held accountable to the 10          court for complying with conditions of release, complying with orders to 11          connect with service providers, and appearing for scheduled court proceedings.

12          (5) Each county that determines that employing a rapid accountability
13          docket modeled on the pilot in Chittenden County that takes into account the 14          unique needs and resources of the county should have the opportunity to 15          operate such a docket.

16          Sec. 32. RAPID ACCOUNTABILITY DOCKET; PURPOSE

17          The goals of a rapid accountability docket include:

18          (1) Accelerating court proceedings of repeat-offender cases by ensuring:

19                  (A) consistent and timely availability of judicial resources, including 20          judge and courtroom time;

21                  (B) dedicated prosecutorial and defense resources;

1           (C) the availability of resources of the Department of Corrections and 2           the Agency of Human Services; and

3           (D) sufficient transport services to detained individuals, as needed, to 4           ensure that defendants attend scheduled court hearings.

5           (2) Connecting individuals with treatment, housing, and social services
6           to appropriately address the circumstances that may contribute to recidivism.

7           (3) Reducing the number of pending criminal cases that involve
8           individuals with multiple dockets by providing targeted resources to improve 9           the overall efficiency of the criminal justice system and utilize the known
10           deterrent effects of consequences close in time to the alleged offense.

11           (4) Improving accountability for individuals with multiple pending legal 12           cases by providing immediate follow-up and a court schedule that is responsive
13           to their needs.

14           (5) Improving collaboration among the courts, law enforcement,
15           prosecutors, and social workers to provide faster resolution of repeat offender
16           cases.

12 goals of the rapid accountability docket are met, as determined by the Judiciary
13 in consultation with the State's Attorney and the public defender. Each docket 14 shall give priority to defendants with five or more pending cases, but the
