H.C.R. 49

Offered by Representative Greer of Bennington

House concurrent resolution recognizing March 21, 2025 as World Day for Glaciers in Vermont

Whereas, according to United Nations Resolution 77/158, which the United Nations General Assembly adopted on December 14, 2022, “glaciers are a critical component of the hydrological cycle and . . . the current accelerated melting and retreat of glaciers have severe impacts on the climate, the environment, the maintenance of human well-being and health and sustainable development,” and

Whereas, the resolution further stated that “in many high mountain areas, glacier retreat and permafrost thaw are projected to further decrease the stability of slopes, and that the incidences of floods owing to glacier lake outburst or rain-on-snow, landslides and snow avalanches are projected to increase and occur in new locations or different seasons,” and

Whereas, the United Nations General Assembly also expressed “the urgent need to raise awareness of and to promote and facilitate actions and sustainable measures towards preserving glaciers,” and

Whereas, the proponents of the resolution believed that the best way for the international community to focus on these concerns was to “declare 2025 the International Year of Glaciers’ Preservation and to proclaim 21 March of each year the World Day for Glaciers,” and

Whereas, the first World Day for Glaciers will be observed on March 21, 2025 and will include official events at United Nations headquarters in New York City and at UNESCO headquarters in Paris, featuring glaciologists, policymakers, and the media, designed to bring public attention to this climate situation, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly recognizes March 21, 2025 as World Day for Glaciers in Vermont, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the United Nations Secretary-General.

Rep. Bos-Lun of Westminster provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and well-being. It means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Carris-Duncan of Whitingham provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes on this bill because this could be anybody. It could be any of us. Given the current state of our economy, this could be any of us. We could lose our job, our business could dry up, and we could find ourselves without homes.”

Rep. Casey of Montpelier provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

Government’s job is to help people – but if we can’t do that, we shouldn’t hurt them. They don’t give grades for a civilized society, but when we toss children and disabled Vermonters on the street, we deserve an ‘F.’ Take the humanity out of it and this is just a cost shift – send the bill to Montpelier, we’ll do our best to make sure people don’t die on our streets.”

Rep. Dolan of Essex Junction provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and well-being. It means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Donahue of Northfield provided the following explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I voted yes reluctantly but want to state clearly on the record that this has never been about denying shelter to those in need. It is about who is denied shelter given inadequate capacity – without distinguishing among who is at greatest need. We need a better path to support all those who find themselves without safe shelter.”

Rep. Galfetti of Barre Town provided the following explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

With no prioritized qualifications in the program, many of our most vulnerable Vermonters will remain unhoused. This budget adjustment proposal highlights the unwillingness of the majority to embrace true compromise and bodes poorly for this legislative session, addressing the problems Vermonters sent us to solve.”

Rep. Houghton of Essex Junction provided the following explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and well-being. It means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. LaMont of Morristown provided the following explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

Humans are not disposable. I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and well-being. It means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Logan of Burlington provided the following explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

The Governor’s compromise position would force a thousand vulnerable Vermonters into unsheltered homelessness, by making some groups ineligible for emergency housing. His compromise is untenable and unconscionable.”

Rep. McCoy of Poultney provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

The General Assistance Housing Program, as passed last year by the Legislature, does not end on April 1. I am hopeful that when we return to this Chamber on Tuesday, prior to third reading, that there will be an agreement reached on the Budget Adjustment.”

Rep. Satcowitz of Randolph provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and well-being—it means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Stevens of Waterbury provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

When does 99.9% agreement not constitute a compromise. Choosing to veto a bill that denies one small segment of our population. The privilege of sleeping in a bed within a room of four walls, especially with no new appropriation, is the upmost in arrogance. Putting numbers above people again is inhumane. Stubbornness in adherence to a principle that puts people’s lives at risk. Unfortunately, a mood and not a policy, and it harms far more than those currently in the hotels.”

Rep. Stone of Burlington provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and wellbeing—it means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Surprenant of Barnard provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and wellbeing. It means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Sweeney of Shelburne provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I vote yes to center people over politics. We implore the Governor to join us in doing the same. Fiscal responsibility and strong leadership doesn’t mean making our most vulnerable pay the price with their safety and well-being. It means stepping up when it counts.”

Rep. Taylor of Milton provided the following vote explanation:

“Madam Speaker:

I voted no today with the hope that negotiations will continue, and I can be a yes for third reading.”
