House concurrent resolution commemorating the 50th anniversary of the conclusion of the Vietnam War

Whereas, the U.S. military engagement in Vietnam began in 1950, when, on the advice of his National Security Council, President Truman authorized military aid for French armed forces battling in Indochina, and, in July 1959, two American military advisors were killed in a guerrilla attack, and

Whereas, as the challenges for the South Vietnamese government increased, the American military advisory presence expanded, and

Whereas, in August 1964, while stationed off the Vietnamese coast in the Gulf of Tonkin, the American destroyer USS Maddox sustained damage from North Vietnamese fire, and in response, Congress adopted the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, increasing President Johnson’s authority to engage militarily in Vietnam, and

Whereas, in March 1965, the first American combat troops arrived at Da Nang, South Vietnam, and during the following years, American forces fought bravely and at great peril, and according to the 2021 data of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, 58,281 U.S. military personnel, including 100 Vermonters, died in combat or noncombat situations during the Vietnam War, while over 300,000 American soldiers were wounded, and

Whereas, although a cease-fire agreement was signed in January 1973 and the last U.S. ground troops withdrew from the country in March 1973, the Vietnam War continued until April 30, 1975, when North Vietnam captured the South Vietnamese capital, then known as Saigon, and the conflict concluded, and

Whereas, Vietnam War veterans served their country heroically and many continue to face physical and mental health challenges due to their military service, and

Whereas, today, April 30, 2025, marks the 50th anniversary of the conclusion of the Vietnam War, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:

That the General Assembly commemorates the 50th anniversary of the conclusion of the Vietnam War, and be it further

Resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the Vermont State Council of the Vietnam Veterans of America, the American Legion Department of Vermont, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Department of Vermont.
