House Resolution

H.R. 11

Offered by Representatives Houghton of Essex Junction, McCoy of Poultney, and Logan of Burlington

House resolution authorizing limited remote committee voting through the remainder of calendar year 2026

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

That through the remainder of calendar year 2026, each member of a House committee is authorized to vote remotely in that committee for not more than three days, and be it further

Resolved: Such a member shall notify the committee chair and clerk that the member is exercising this remote voting authority, and shall count toward a committee quorum, and be it further

Resolved: That the committee clerk shall record any vote cast by the member as a remote vote, and shall track the number of days the member exercises this remote voting authority.
