

Vermont's future economic health depends on providing support for families and alternative energy opportunities.

As retired Vermonters, investing in solar energy and heat pumps has made it possible for us to remain in our home. Providing leadership in this area will attract young families and investment.

I write to support H.716.

Dave.