

Gwendalyn Brown
Brattleboro

I am writing to protect Vermont's smart meter opt out law.

RF radiation exposure contains health risks. These risks are demonstrated through international peer reviewed studies and confirmed through individuals' experiences.

No one should have health damaging technology forced upon them or be forced to pay to avoid it.

Please protect Vermont's health and environment and uphold the smart meter opt-out/no charge/no questions law.