15 Sec. 3b. 21 V.S.A. § 495q is added to read:

16 § 495q. AGREEMENTS NOT TO COMPETE; PROHIBITION

17 (a) Nonexempt employees. Agreements not to compete between an 18 employer and a nonexempt employee, per the Fair Labor Standards Act,
19 29 U.S.C. §§ 201–219, are prohibited as presumptively coercive and a restraint
20 on trade, unless bargained for as part of a collective bargaining agreement.

1        (b) Health care providers.

2            (1) Any provision in a contract or agreement that creates or establishes
3        the terms of a partnership, employment, or any other form of professional
4        relationship with a health care provider regarding the health care provider’s
5        provision of health care services in Vermont shall be void and unenforceable if 6        the provision:

7            (A) includes a restriction on the right of the health care provider to 8        provide health care services in any geographical area for any period of time
9        after the termination of such partnership, agreement, or professional 10       relationship;

11           (B) limits the ability of a separating health care provider to provide 12       notice of the provider’s change of employment to individuals to whom the 13       separating provider provided direct health care services;

14           (C) restricts a health care provider from making disparaging
15       statements about another party to the contract or agreement, or about another
16       person specified in the agreement as a third-party beneficiary of the agreement;

17           (D) is inconsistent with Vermont law; or

18           (E) requires litigation arising from the performance of the contract or 19       agreement in Vermont to be conducted in another state.

20           (2) The notice provided in subdivision (1)(B) of this subsection may 21       include the following information:

1           (A) that the health care provider is continuing to practice the 2 provider’s profession;

3           (B) the health care provider’s new professional contact information;
4 and

5           (C) the recipient’s right to choose a health care provider.

6           (3) The provisions in subdivision (1) of this subsection do not apply to 7 restrictions that limit a health care provider who contracts with a third-party
8 company for nonclinical business support services from opening a business
9 within a specific territory supported by a different third-party company
10 providing nonclinical services.

11           (c) Retaliation and remedies. An employer shall not discharge or in any 12 other manner retaliate against an employee who exercises or attempts to 13 exercise the employee’s rights under this section. The provisions against 14 retaliation in subdivision 495(a)(8) of this subchapter and the penalty
15 provisions of section 495b of this subchapter shall apply to this section.

16           (d) Effective date. This section shall apply to agreements not to compete
17 entered into on or after July 1, 2026.

18 Sec. 3c. 3 V.S.A. § 922 is amended to read:

19 § 922. OFFICE SPACE; EMPLOYEES; MEDIATOR

20           (a) The Secretary of Administration shall, upon request by the State Labor
21 Relations Board, allow the Board the responsible use of public buildings under

1 ~~his or her~~ the Secretary's control and furnish heat, light, and furniture for any
2 meeting or hearing called by the Board.

3 (b) The Board may employ such employees and agents as it deems
4 necessary; and may employ a reporter for taking and transcribing testimony in 5 hearing before it.

6 (c)(1) The Board may employ a mediator to provide free mediation services
7 to public and private sector collective bargaining units and employers upon 8 reaching an impasse during collective bargaining.

9 (2) If the mediator has capacity, the mediator may provide free
10 mediation services to public and private sector collective bargaining units and 11 employers on grievances and unfair labor practice charges.

12 (3) The Board shall develop policies and procedures to ensure that all 13 confidential mediation information is maintained separately and insulated from 14 access by members of the Board or other employees of the State Labor
15 Relations Board to protect the integrity of the mediation process.

16 Sec. 4. EFFECTIVE DATE

17 This act shall take effect on July 1, 2026.
