

Income Limits for VHCB Rental Housing: up to 100%, but primarily below 80%

Income limit for VHCB Homeownership: up to 120% but primarily below 100%

1-person Household

At 60% of AMI, for a 1-person household (the cap for this ranges depending on county but the maximum annual income in this category is $49,980) Vermonters with these jobs, in addition to elders, the disabled and those on public assistance would be eligible:

- Housekeepers
- Retail Workers
- Nursing Assistants
- Customer Service Representatives
- Food service workers
- Food service managers
- Office & Administrative Support Professionals
- Automotive Technicians
- Healthcare support staff

Maximum Affordable Rent for this population is $1,152 - $1,338 depending on county

Maximum affordable homeownership price is $136,500- $159,000

At 80% of AMI (maximum of $66,600) we are meeting the needs of Vermonters with jobs like this, in addition to those served above in the 60% category:

- Elementary and secondary education school teachers
- Plumbers & Pipefitters
- Child, Family & School Social Workers
- Post-Office Clerks
- Carpenters
- Clergy
- School Counselors

Maximum Affordable Rent for this population is $1,535 - $1,783 depending on county

Maximum affordable homeownership price is $182,500 - $212,500

At 100% of AMI (maximum of $83,300) we are meeting the needs of Vermonters with jobs like this:

- Accountants and Auditors
- Speech Language Pathologists
- Registered Nurses

Maximum Affordable Rent for this population is $1,920 - $2,231 depending on county
Maximum affordable homeownership price is $228,500 - $266,000

At 120% of AMI (maximum of $99,960) the income range includes Vermonters with jobs like this:

- Architects
- Physical Therapists
- Electrical and telecom line installers
- Sales representatives

Maximum Affordable Rent for this population is $2,304 - $2,677 depending on county
Maximum affordable homeownership price is $275,500 - $320,000

At 150% of AMI (maximum of $124,950) the income range includes Vermonters with jobs like this:

- Financial managers and advisors
- Software developers
- Lawyers

Maximum Affordable Rent for this population is $2,880 - $3,346 depending on county
Maximum affordable homeownership price is $344,000 - $400,000

3-person household

Assumption: One working adult, two children (boy and girl) in a 3 bedroom homes.

At 60% of AMI, for a 3-person single parent household (the cap for this ranges depending on county but the maximum annual income in this category is $64,260) Vermonters with these jobs, in addition to elders, the disabled and those on public assistance would be eligible:

- maintenance workers
- cashiers
- cafeteria workers
- early childhood educators, teaching assistants
- carpenters, construction workers, general laborers
- CNC tool operators
- plumbers & pipefitters
- waiters
- postal clerks

- bookkeepers
- customer service representatives & sales associates
- librarians
- administrative assistants and office support staff
- tractor trailer and other truck drivers
- healthcare support staff
- home health aids, LPNs and medical assistants
- factory production staff
- cleaning staff
- bank tellers

Maximum Affordable Rent for this population is $1,330-1,546 depending on county
 Maximum affordable homeownership price is $157,500 - $184,000.

At 80% of AMI (maximum of $85,600) we are meeting the needs of Vermonters with jobs like this, in addition to those served above in the 60% category:

- computer support specialists
- laboratory technicians
- speech language pathologists
- police officers
- substance use and mental health counselors
- clergy, and HR specialists

Maximum affordable rent is $2,128 – $2,473
 Maximum affordable homeownership purchase price is $254,000 - $295,500.

At 100% of AMI (maximum of $107,100) we are meeting the needs of Vermonters with jobs like this:

- radiology technicians
- sales representatives
- accountants
- registered nurses
- dental hygienists
- physical therapists

Maximum affordable rent is $2,660 – $3,092
 Maximum affordable homeownership price is $318,000 – $369,500

At 150% of AMI (maximum of 160,650) the income range includes Vermonters with jobs like this:

- lawyers
- industrial engineers
- financial managers
- software developers
- computer systems analysts
- nurse practitioners
- management analysts

Maximum affordable rent is $3,990 – $4,638

Maximum affordable homeownership purchase price is $477,000 – 554,500

Data Sources: Housing Data.org and the McClure annual report on Vermont's most promising jobs.