

While I continue to have concerns about the need and patient safety implications of the optometry surgical scope bill, the amendment suggested by Mary Katherine Stone is a strong step forward for patient safety. Please consider her amendment.

Sincerely,

Michelle Young, MD, FRCSC