Council Progress

Last year's progress towards Council goals:

- Creation of Law Enforcement Officers' Code of Conduct
- Rules committee discussion of ARIDE training and rulemaking process
- The creation of a Level I certification course (in progress scheduled for delivery in 2026)
- Curriculum review and revision (in year 2, re-writing well underway)
- Entrance testing committee work (proposal for Council on 2/5/25)
- Completion of the Rulemaking process. Effective February 2, 2025
- Completed update of statewide Fair and Impartial Policing policy

Important Highlights for Legislative Committees

- Curriculum review and re-write: Possible by legislative and Governor support to meet best practices, training defensibility, and show competencies.
- Legislative Support by both House Committee on Government Operations and Military Affairs, and Senate Committee Government Operations for reframing of Category B offenses of Unprofessional Conduct, and allowing Council to create a Code of Conduct.
- Support for Code of conduct to be created and placed into the rulemaking process. Allows for flexibility for change, provides safeguards for process change, and allows for greater transparency and accountability
- Support for training standards (ARIDE) to be placed into rule and removed from statute. Allows for greater delivery of training to those with pre-requisite training

Vermont Criminal Justice Council vs. Vermont Police Academy

- VCJC is statutorily created – 24 members, volunteer with small stipend, oversight and direction of the Executive Director
- VCJC membership is represented by law enforcement practitioners along with stakeholder groups with an interest in the delivery of law enforcement training
- VCJC is the membership body responsible for unprofessional conduct complaints by creating procedures for review of complaints, committee review with assistance of legal counsel, the hearing body, and in cases of adjudication, the sanctioning body.
- VCJC meets quarterly by statute. Council meetings are scheduled monthly, with secondary meeting dates monthly for the processing of unprofessional conduct complaints
- VCJC currently has 12 working subcommittees to meet rule and legislative mandates

Vermont Criminal Justice Council vs Vermont Police Academy

The Vermont Police Academy (VPA)

VPA responsible for delivery of level III (full time) basic academy. 2 classes per year, 17 weeks in duration

VPA delivers level II training 3 times per year, a 3 phase process

VPA delivers or coordinates in service training, state mandated policy training, off site training.

VPA has a staff of 14 which includes legal, investigative, inclusion programs, training, administrative

VPA is the sole entity responsible for the certification of 1400 + law enforcement officers

Vermont Police Academy Staff

- The Vermont Police Academy is the sole location of certification of all law enforcement officers in the State of Vermont. The Academy is overseen by the Criminal Justice Council who is legislatively mandated to develop standards, policies, and outcomes for the training and development of the Academy.
- The Academy provides training 52 weeks a year to all state, regions, towns, cities, municipalities, and villages throughout the state. The outcomes of the Academy impact 100% of the population of Vermonters from residents to visitors.
- The Academy provides standardized training that all law enforcement officers receive for basic training in order to be certified. Academy staff are also responsible for the coordination and tracking of in-service training

VPA Ongoing Initiatives

- Curriculum Review – Year 2
- Acadis – Record Management System for compliance and tracking – year 2
- Crisis Intervention
- 30X30 Initiative – Hosting Women’s Leadership Institute, IACP
- Canine Accountability Program, newly adopted standards for certification
- Officer Wellness – O2X (readiness and PT training assistance)
