[External]

Dear House Committee on Judiciary. (Please share with entire Committee.)

I just read such a powerful Letter to the Editor that the flaw in this bill is that citizens are prohibited from filing a nuisance action if the farm activities complied with state law and "generally-accepted agricultural activities." The story shared a chicken farm that despite poisoning the neighbor, the farmer could not be sued/stopped because that farm had not deviated from industry practices. Please note my strong opposition to that wording, that restriction to citizens who need to be protected.
