

DCF-FSD juvenile services staff provide support and supervision to the at-risk cases, specifically CHINS-C youth deemed to be beyond parental control, CHINS-D which are youth experiencing truancy, as well as youth engaging in delinquent behaviors, and those who have youthful offender status. The chart below shows the caseload for juvenile services staff for calendar years 2020-2024.

Data Source: AHS Report Catalog; Youth Justice Population Report Data Note: Data is a deduplicated count of youth.

Should RTA be fully implemented on April 1, 2025, the non-Big 11 offenses that remain in Criminal Division for youth who were 19 years old at the time of the offense will no longer have jurisdiction in that court. The cases will need to be transferred to the Family Division for processing. As of January 15, 2025, the Criminal Division had 97 misdemeanor cases and 55 non-Big 11 felony cases, a total of 152 cases that will transfer to Family Division on April 1, 2025, if they are not resolved prior and RTA is implemented on April 1, 2025. The breakdown of this data by county is below.
