

I am writing to express my sincere belief that the ONLY solution to improving both student performance and the cost effectiveness of Vermont's public schools is to offer universal school choice . This, in my view, is the litmus test - anything the legislature does must further school choice, or the legislature is deliberately failing Vermont children, parents and taxpayers.

Thank you

--

Robert Fireovid
South Hero, VT