

35 Years
of Public Art

Art In State Buildings

The Art in State Buildings program commissions Vermont artists to create new public art that enhances the state-owned buildings and public spaces.

Established by Vermont statute in 1988, the work of more than 60 Vermont artists appears in 35 state-owned buildings statewide.

These works build a distinctive sense of place, support cultural tourism, and are a key attribute in making communities healthier and more vibrant.

Agricultural & Environmental Lab, Randolph Center

Forensics Lab & Department of Public Safety, Waterbury

River Valley Therapeutic
Residence, Essex

Northbound I89 Rest Area
Williston

Vermont Fire Academy
Pittsford

Fish Culture Station Roxbury

State Office Building
Springfield

Family & District Courthouse
Brattleboro

Vermont Veterans Cemetery,
Randolph Center

The Art in State Buildings program is administered by the Vermont Arts Council in partnership with the Department of Buildings and General Services.

For more information, visit
vermontartscouncil.org/public-art

