

December 2024 Amendment to Administrative Directive No. 24

Supreme Court
December Term, 2024

Administrative Directive No. 24 is amended as follows (new matter underlined; deleted matter overstruck):

CRIMINAL CASE DISPOSITION GUIDELINES

The management of the flow of cases in the Criminal Division of the Superior Court is the responsibility of the judiciary. In carrying out that responsibility, the judiciary must balance the rights and interests of individual litigants, the limited resources of the judicial branch and other participants in the justice system, and the interests of the citizens of this state in having an effective, fair, and efficient system of justice.

- A. The State Court Administrator and ~~Administrative Judge for Trial Courts~~ Chief Superior Judge are directed, within available resources, to:
  - 1. Assist the Criminal Division of the Superior Court in implementing caseflow management plans that incorporate case processing time guidelines established pursuant to this directive;
  - 2. Gather information from the Criminal Division on compliance with case disposition guidelines; and
  - 3. Assess the effectiveness of management plans in achieving the guidelines established by this directive.
- B. The Criminal Division in each unit of the Superior Court are directed to:
  - 1. Maintain current caseflow management plans consistent with case processing time guidelines established in this directive;
  - 2. Collect and maintain accurate caseflow management data;
  - 3. Cooperate with the ~~Administrative Judge for Trial Courts~~ Chief Superior Judge and Court Administrator's Office in assessing caseflow management plans implemented pursuant to this directive.

The following ~~amended~~ time guidelines for case processing are provided as goals for the administration of court caseloads. These guidelines do not supersede procedural requirements in court rules or statutes for specific cases, or supersede reporting requirements in court rules or statutes. ~~These amended guidelines replace in their entirety the guidelines adopted by the Court on August 19, 2004. The guidelines were amended to provide the Criminal Division of the Superior Court and the Court Administrator's Office with time standards that may be easily monitored and tracked are easier to monitor and track statistically.~~
