

1 TO THE HONORABLE SENATE:

2 The Committee on Judiciary to which was referred Senate Bill No. 193 3 entitled “An act relating to establishing a forensic facility for certain criminal 4 justice-involved persons” respectfully reports that it has considered the same 5 and recommends that the bill be amended by striking out all after the enacting 6 clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

7 Sec. 1. 13 V.S.A. § 4815a is added to read:

8 § 4815a. COMPETENCY RESTORATION SERVICES WITHIN 9 FORENSIC FACILITY

10 (a) A person shall be transferred to the forensic facility established in 11 section 4826 of this title if the person:

12 (1) has been charged with an offense punishable by a life sentence;

13 (2)(A) has been held without bail pursuant to 13 V.S.A. § 7553; or 14 (B) if the person is not held without bail pursuant to 13 V.S.A.

15 § 7553, the person’s release would create a substantial risk of bodily injury to 16 another person;

17 (3) is not currently receiving treatment through an order of 18 hospitalization pursuant to 18 V.S.A. § 7619 or 13 V.S.A. § 4822; and 19 (4) has been found not competent to stand trial.

20 (b)(1)(A) Upon admission, the forensic facility shall cause the person to be 21 evaluated for competency to stand trial not less often than the shorter of either:

1                   (i) every six months; or

2                   (ii) upon the determination by the forensic facility's clinical 3 services director that the person is likely competent to stand trial.

4                   (B) The results of all evaluations shall be supplied to the court and 5 the parties to the underlying criminal action.

6                   (2)(A) At the request of a party the court may order that a second or

7 subsequent evaluation include an opinion on whether the person's competency

8 can be restored. If the court finds that the person may be found likely

9 competent to stand trial, the court shall immediately notify the State's Attorney

10 and the person's counsel in the criminal case. If the court finds by clear and 11 convincing evidence that the person cannot be restored to competency, the 12 court shall order continued commitment of the person, taking into account the 13 least restrictive conditions applicable, unless subdivision (B) applies.

14                   (B)(i) If the court finds that the release of a person who cannot be 15 restored to competency would not would not create a substantial risk of bodily 16 injury to another person, the court shall:

17                   (I) order the release of the person under a prescribed regimen

18 of medical, psychiatric, or psychological care or treatment that the forensic

19 facility's clinical services director has certified as appropriate and that has been

20 found by the court to be appropriate; and

1                    (II) order, as an explicit condition of release, that the person 2                    comply with the prescribed regimen of medical, psychiatric, or psychological 3                    care or treatment together with any other conditions appropriate to protect the 4                    public.

5                    (c) The person shall remain at the forensic facility until the person is 6                    restored to competency or until there is a final disposition of the charges 7                    against the person.

8                    (d) The person shall receive competency restoration services while at the 9                    forensic facility according to a plan approved by the forensic facility’s clinical 10                   services director. Such services shall include any appropriate combination of 11                   medication, education, accommodations, habilitation, or other services 12                   identified as necessary or proper to achieve and maintain competency to stand 13                   trial. The person’s refusal to receive competency restoration services shall not 14                   be grounds for release or dismissal from the forensic facility.

15                   (e) Competency restoration services shall be provided to the person at the 16                   forensic facility, or at another location as part of a discharge plan, until the 17                   person is restored to competency or until there is a final disposition of the 18                   charges against the person.

19                   (f)(1) The Commissioner shall actively monitor compliance with orders 20                   issued pursuant to subdivision (2)(B)(i) of this subsection and shall 21                   immediately return a person to the forensic facility if:

1           (A) the person was previously restored to competence pursuant to 2           this section and released from the facility;

3           (B) the Commissioner has reason to believe that the person is again 4           incompetent; and

5           (C) the person’s continued release would create a substantial risk of 6           bodily injury to another person.

7           (2) The Commissioner shall notify the court where the where the person 8           was committed upon return of the person to the forensic facility. Upon 9           readmission, the court shall hold a hearing where the state’s attorney shall have 10          the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the clear and convincing 11          evidence that the person is not competent. If the court finds that the person is 12          not competent, the court shall order the person readmitted to the forensic 13          facility for competency restoration treatment pursuant to this section. If the 14          court finds that the person is competent, the court shall order the person 15          restored to the status the person had when the person was returned to the 16          facility.

17          (g) The Commissioner shall receive prior approval of the Criminal Division 18          of the Superior Court where the person’s underlying criminal charge is pending 19          for any competency restoration plan involving involuntary medication. The 20          court shall not approve involuntary medication unless the court finds that:

21               (1) the involuntary medication is medically appropriate;

1 Sec. 3. 13 V.S.A § 4819a is added to read:

2 § 4819a. FORENSIC FACILITY PLACEMENT FOR PERSONS

3 ACQUITTED OF CERTAIN CRIMES

4 (a) A person who is charged with an offense punishable by a life sentence 5 and is found not guilty only by reason of insanity at the time of the offense 6 charged shall be committed to a forensic facility pursuant to this section. This 7 section shall not be construed to prohibit the temporary transfer of a person 8 requiring inpatient treatment through an order of hospitalization pursuant to 18 9 V.S.A. § 7619 or 13 V.S.A. § 4822.

10 (b)(1) A hearing shall be held by the court where the person was tried 11 within 40 days following admission to the forensic facility, unless that period 12 is extended by the court.

13 (2) Prior to the date of the hearing, the court shall order that a forensic 14 risk assessment of the person be conducted that includes:

15 (A) the person's history and present dangerousness

16 (B) a description of any tests that were employed and the results of 17 the tests;

18 (C) the examiner's findings; and 19 (D) the examiner's opinion as to whether the person's release would 20 create a substantial risk of bodily injury to another person.

1           (3)(A) At the hearing, the court shall order the person committed to the 2           forensic facility, unless if the person state’s attorney establishes by clear and 3           convincing evidence that the person is no longer suffering from a qualifying 4           condition that, upon the person’s release, would create a substantial risk of 5           bodily injury to another person.

6           (B) If the court finds that the person state’s attorney has not 7           established by clear and convincing evidence that the person is no longer 8           suffering from a qualifying condition that, upon the person’s release, would 9           create a substantial risk of bodily injury to another person, the court shall enter 10           an order releasing the person pursuant to subdivision (e)(2) of this subsection.

11           (c) A placement of a person at the forensic facility shall be for an 12           indeterminate period and shall not have a specified end date. The person shall 13           not be released until the person establishes by clear and convincing evidence 14           the court finds pursuant to subsection (e) of this section that the person is no 15           longer suffering from a qualifying condition that, upon the person’s release, 16           would create a substantial risk of bodily injury to another person or serious 17           damage to the property of another person.

18           (d) The Commissioner of Corrections shall provide adequate care and 19           individualized treatment at the forensic facility to persons ordered committed 20           pursuant to this section. In order that the commissioner may adequately 21           determine the nature of the person’s condition and needs, all persons

1 committed pursuant to this section shall be promptly examined by qualified 2 personnel in order to provide a proper evaluation, diagnosis, and treatment 3 plan.

4 (e)(1)(A) The State’s Attorney shall petition the committing court for 5 release of the person upon certification to the Commissioner of Corrections by 6 the clinical services director that the person is no longer suffering from a 7 qualifying condition that, upon the person’s release, would create a substantial 8 risk of bodily injury to another person. The Commissioner of Corrections shall 9 provide all reports required under this section to the State’s Attorney, who 10 shall file them with the petition.

11 (B) A person committed pursuant to subdivision (b)(3)(A) of this 12 section may petition the committing court for release on the grounds that the 13 person is no longer suffering from a qualifying condition that, upon the 14 person’s release, would create a substantial risk of bodily injury to another 15 person. A petition shall not be filed pursuant to this subdivision until at least 16 90 days after the issuance of the commitment order.

17 (2) If the reviewing court finds by clear and convincing evidence that 18 person is no longer suffering from a qualifying condition that, upon the 19 person’s release, would create a substantial risk of bodily injury to another 20 person, the court shall:

1           (A) order the release of the person under a prescribed regimen of 2           medical, psychiatric, or psychological care or treatment that the forensic 3           facility’s clinical services director has certified as appropriate and that has been 4           found by the court to be appropriate; and

5           (B) order, as an explicit condition of release, that the person comply 6           with the prescribed regimen of medical, psychiatric, or psychological care or 7           treatment together with any other conditions appropriate to protect the public.

8           (3) If the court finds that the person is suffering from a qualifying 9           condition that, upon the person’s release, would create a substantial risk of 10           bodily injury to another person, the court shall deny the petition and order the 11           person committed to the forensic facility for continued treatment pursuant to 12           this section. If the court denies a petition filed under this section, no further 13           petition shall be brought for at least one year, unless a shorter duration is 14           authorized by the court.

15           (f) The Commissioner shall actively monitor compliance with orders issued 16           pursuant to subdivision (d)(2) of this section and shall immediately return the 17           person to the forensic facility if the Commissioner determines that the person 18           is noncompliant with the order and that the noncompliance may create a risk of 19           bodily injury to another person. The Commissioner shall notify the court 20           where the where the person was committed upon return of the person to the 21           forensic facility. Upon readmission, the court shall hold a hearing where the 1 state’s attorney shall have the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the 2 evidence that the person was noncompliant with the court’s order for 3 conditional release and that the noncompliance creates a risk of bodily injury 4 to another person.

5 (g) At any hearing under this section the victim may express the victim’s 6 views concerning the offense and preferences for the person’s placement and 7 care, and the court may consider the victim’s testimony

8 Sec. 4. 13 V.S.A. § 4826 is added to read:

9 § 4826. FORENSIC FACILITY; DEFINITIONS

10 (a)(1) As used in this chapter:

11 (A) “Forensic facility” means a locked facility or placement that:

12 (i) the Department of Corrections provides for the secure 13 evaluation, treatment, and care of persons involved in the legal system who do 14 not require a hospitalization level of care; and

2           (2) The evaluations required by this chapter may be conducted pursuant 3 to contracts entered into between the Commissioner of General Services and 4 evaluation providers.

5           (b) The Commissioner of Corrections shall establish and operate a locked 6 secure forensic facility for the secure evaluation, treatment, and care of persons 7 who have been transferred pursuant to subsections 4815a(a) and 4819a(a) of 8 this title. The forensic facility shall not refuse any persons it is ordered to 9 admit, and it shall not require any clinical or diagnostic prerequisites for 10 admission. All forensic, clinical, and competency restoration services 11 provided at the forensic facility shall be overseen by a clinical services 12 director.

13           (c) Any records related to a person placed at the forensic facility shall be 14 exempt from public inspection and copying under the Public Records Act and 15 shall be kept confidential, except that:

16           (1) the records shall be made available to the parties in the underlying 17 criminal case upon request; and 18           (2) the person's health care providers may, with the person's 19 permission, view forensic facility records of the person's psychiatric 20 assessments at the facility, including assessment's of the person's competency 21 to stand trial and criminal responsibility.

1        (d) Persons shall be admitted to and maintained at the forensic facility 2        pursuant to sections 4815a and 4819a of this title, and in proceedings under 3        those sections shall be entitled to have counsel appointed from Vermont Legal 4        Aid to represent the person.

5        (e) The Commissioner of Corrections shall regularly consult with the 6        Commissioner of Mental Health when performing the duties required by this 7        chapter for operating the forensic facility.

8        (f) The Commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to 3 V.S.A. chapter 25 to 9        implement this section.

10       Sec. 5. RULEMAKING; FORENSIC FACILITY

11       Pending the adoption of permanent rules pursuant to 3 V.S.A. chapter 25 to
